Product Information

This product is used for therapeutic purposes on the hair and body. It possesses unique medicinal qualities in cases of various skin diseases, and may also be used for preventive purposes. You are given an opportunity to experience the outstanding healing properties of the product. Dead Sea mud masks are used for treatment of psoriasis, eczema, dermatitis, fungal infections and other skin diseases. They are also effective in cases of arthritis and rheumatism. The mask diminishes tension in the muscles and the nervous system and also has a positive influence on the peripheral nervous system.

Cut off the corner of the package and heat in a microwave oven for 30-60 sec or immerse a closed package in hot but not boiling water until hot. Apply the mask on body and hair or to required areas only, and leave for 20 minutes up to one hour. Rinse the mask away with water. It is suggested that you follow with body lotion

A mineral rich natural cosmetic soap based on black mud from the Dead Sea with its famous healthful properties. The soap helps to restore the natural balance of the skin. It is recommended for use for all skin types.

The soap contains vitamins, minerals and black mud from the Dead Sea together with natural olive, coconut and palm-tree oils. The natural mud soap vigorously exfoliates and rejuvenates the skin of the face and body without causing dryness. It possesses therapeutic antibacterial qualities and may be used preventively. Prolonged use creates a smooth healthy skin.

1) On your face - lather hands thoroughly and then lather face and neck vigorously while avoiding the eye area. Rinse with water. It is recommended that you wash your face using mud soap daily before bedtime or as required. Follow with a toner and a face cream.
