Bali Still Popular

Bali, Indonesia is still a popular holiday destination with cheap flights from around the world.

Visa requirements for entering Bali are much simpler than other countries in the Far East.

You may get you visa upon arrival at the airport.

Bali Hotels

Our best hotel tip? Finding hotels in Bali and Indonesia is easy with www.hotels.com.

We used this site to book hotels while on our holiday and Bali. We were able to get some great last-minute deals by booking hotels room a couple of days in advance, sometimes at less than 50% of the original price.

You will get an instant confirmation by email if the hotel room is available. If not, you will be informed immediately that the room is not available and alternative hotels will be suggested.

Etihad Airways Flights to Bali. We found the coach class of Etihad almost luxurious – large comfortable seats, the most recent in-flight movies, and excellent service during the entire flight to Bali from London Heathrow.

If you are looking for internal flights within Indonesia or Bali itself, then try Air Asia. You can book your flights within Indonesia online, but we found it easier and cheaper to just go to the local airports in Indonesia and book our flights in person.

Resorts in Bali

If you can afford to stay in a resort in Bali, the Bali Hyatt on Sanur Beach is its own paradise.

You can see photos of this resort and book online at Bali Hyatt Resort

If you are looking for a resort in Bali on a budget, then you can go through BaliResorts.com, which is a price comparison site.

Accommodation in Bali

You can book accommodation in advance in Bali or you can just turn up with your rucksack if you are on a backpackers' holiday. We liked using Asia Rooms – Bali.

Be careful though. Asia Rooms Bali will send you a "Confirmation" after you book online. This "confirmation" doesn't actualy mean you have booked your accommodation. You have to wait a day or two to get a email, which is then your real confirmation of whether you got the room or not!
