Wounded Warrior Project, Inc

v.

Keystone Wounded Warriors

Millicent Canady, Paralegal Specialist:

The motion (filed September 29, 2014) to suspend this proceeding pending final determination of Civil Action No. 14-5565 filed in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania is granted as well taken.[1] It is the policy of the Board to suspend proceedings when the parties are involved in a civil action, which may be dispositive of or have a bearing on the Board case. See Trademark Rule 2.117(a).

Accordingly, proceedings are suspended pending final disposition of the civil action.

Within twenty days after the final determination of the civil action, the parties shall so notify the Board so that this proceeding may be called up for [1] If a copy of the pleadings in the civil action was not filed with the motion to suspend, [^insert party] is allowed until twenty days from the mailing date of this order in which to file a copy of the pleadings.

appropriate action.[2] Such notification to the Board should include a copy of any final order or final judgment which issued in the civil action.

During the suspension period, the parties must notify the Board of any address changes for the parties or their attorneys. In addition, the parties are to promptly inform the Board of any other related cases, even if they become aware of such cases during the suspension period. Upon resumption, if appropriate, the Board may consolidate related Board cases.[3]
