Applicant.	:

ANSWER

Applicant Apple Inc., by its attorneys, hereby answers the numbered paragraphs of the Notice of Opposition as follows:

1. Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in the first numbered paragraph and they are therefore denied.

2. Applicant denies the allegation in the second numbered paragraph that "Opposer has been developing its ICLOUD technology service over the last decade." Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in the second numbered paragraph and they are therefore denied.

3. Applicant denies the allegation in the third numbered paragraph that "Opposer has been developing their [sic] ICLOUD service over the last decade." Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in the third numbered paragraph and they are therefore denied.

4. Applicant admits that it uses it ICLOUD mark in connection with services that work with applications on the iPhone, iPad and iPod touch devices as well as Mac and PC computers to automatically and wirelessly store content and automatically and wirelessly push it to all of the user's devices.

5. Applicant denies the allegations of the fifth numbered paragraph.

6. Applicant admits that its ICLOUD products and services are widely recognized in the marketplace and known by consumers as associated with Applicant. Applicant denies the allegation in the second numbered paragraph that Applicant's use of its ICLOUD mark "has confused and mislead [sic] the public." The remaining allegations in the second numbered paragraph constitute conclusions of law to which no response is required, and they are therefore denied.

7. Applicant admits that its Application Serial No. 85/335,805 seeks to register the mark ICLOUD in International Class 39, and that the Application was assigned U.S. Classes 100 and 105 by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the nature of Opposer's alleged ICLOUD service, and therefore denies the remaining allegations of the seventh numbered paragraph.

8. Applicant denies the allegation in the eighth numbered paragraph that Opposer's use of ICLOUD "has been established over the last decade." Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in the eighth numbered paragraph and they are therefore denied.

9. Applicant denies the allegation in the ninth numbered paragraph that Opposer is the "first to use the mark ICLOUD." The remaining allegations in the ninth numbered paragraph constitute conclusions of law to which no response is required, and they are therefore denied.

10. Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in the tenth numbered paragraph that Opposer "will suffer substantial damage" and they are therefore denied. The remaining allegations in the tenth numbered paragraph constitute conclusions of law to which no response is required, and they are therefore denied.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Fraud

1. Opposer's claims are barred by fraud, as Opposer did not adopt its alleged ICLOUD mark until after the May 9, 2011 priority date of Apple's Application Serial No. 85/335,805, and after Apple's June 6, 2011 announcement of its ICLOUD products and services.

2. Opposer was incorporated in 2000 under the name "Exclusive Aviation 2000 Inc.", and its corporate charter was voided and revoked in 2002. It filed to renew and revive the charter on June 15, 2011, and then filed on June 17, 2011 to change its name to iCloud Inc. See Ex. A (certified records from the Secretary of State of Delaware).

3. No online evidence of iCloud Inc.'s alleged use of ICLOUD prior to Apple's use exists. To the contrary, Opposer's website, www.i-cloudinc.com, was not registered until June 13, 2011. See Ex. B (WhoIs record for www.i-cloudinc.com). Opposer's first use of its "iCloud Inc." Twitter account is dated June 29, 2011, and it did not join Facebook until August 16, 2011. See Exs. C, D.

WHEREFORE, Applicant prays that this Opposition be dismissed with prejudice and that the registration of the mark shown in Application Serial No. 85/335,805 be granted.
