Opposition No. 91227470

Lockheed Martin Corporation

v.

Daya P Apunte and Daniel G Gamble

Joi M Wilson, Paralegal Specialist:

The order instituting this proceeding and a copy of the petition to cancel were forwarded to Respondent but were returned by the Postal Service as undeliverable.

On May 27, 2016 Opposer filed its Notice of Opposition Service Copy Returned as Undeliverable and provided an alternative address for Applicant. The Board believes that service could be effected when documents are remailed to the following: [1]

Daya P Apunte and Daniel G Gamble
8 W. McBee Avenue Suite 215
Greenville, SC 29601

Accordingly, the order is remailed as indicated above.[2]

[1] Respondent is reminded of its responsibility to ensure that the Board has its current correspondence address. If a party fails to notify the Board of a change of address, with the result that the Board is unable to serve correspondence on the party, default judgment may be entered against the party. See TBMP § 117.07.

Respondent is allowed until forty days from the mailing date of this order in which to inform this Office of its correct address in order that all records may be amended. Compliance with Trademark Rule 2.193(3) and Trademark 2.119(a) is required.

If there has been any transfer of interest in the involved registration, Respondent must so advise the Board and registrant must submit copies of the appropriate documents. See Section 10 of the Trademark Act and Patent and Trademark Rules 3.7l and 3.73.

In view of the circumstances, the time for filing an answer to the petition to cancel is extended to forty days from the mailing date of this order. Notice is hereby given that unless the respondent listed herein, its assigns or legal representatives, shall enter an appearance, answer or other response to the petition within the time provided in this order, the cancellation may proceed as in the case of default.

In accordance with the Trademark Rules of Practice, conference, disclosure, discovery and trial dates are reset as indicated below.
