As a final matter, the Board notes that, since February 2013, the parties have effected numerous requests to extend or suspend for settlement, yet settlement has still not been reached. The Board finds that it has provided the parties more than ample time to settle this matter, including the extension granted herein.

Accordingly, the Board will not entertain any further requests to extend or suspend for settlement, whether consented to or not. The parties are charged to settle this matter within the extension of time granted by this order or be prepared to move forward on this case.
