Tyrone Craven, Paralegal Specialist:

On February 2, 2010, the Trademark Examining Attorney submitted a request for remand.

In view of the reasons given therein, the request for remand is granted. Action on the appeal is suspended, and the file is remanded to the Examining Attorney.

If another final refusal ultimately issues, the "six-month response" clause should be crossed out, and the file of this case should be returned to the Board. Action on the appeal will then be resumed; and the applicant will be allowed time in which to file a supplemental brief, if it so desires.

A request for an oral hearing, if desired, is due not later than ten days after the due date for applicant's reply brief.
