MOTION TO REMAND

BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD ON APPEAL

TRADEMARK EXAMINING ATTORNEY'S REQUEST FOR REMAND

The trademark examining attorney requests that the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board remand this case to the examining attorney under 37 C.F.R. §2.142(d) for the following reason:

The applicant's Appeal Brief raises an identification of goods issue.

As stated in its Appeal Brief (on pages 1, 6 and 9) submitted on October 25, 2011, the applicant's identification of goods is indefinite because it includes broadly-worded language such as "media recorders, movie players, movie recorders" and less specific language than what the applicant had previously proposed in its Request for Reconsideration.

Applicant submitted its Request for Reconsideration on July 21, 2011 where it proposed a differently-worded and much more specific identification of goods, which was accepted by the examining attorney.

Once remanded, I intend to clarify the wording of the identification of goods with the applicant via Examiner's Amendment:

Respectfully submitted,

/Andrew Rhim/
