CORRESPONDENT'S REFERENCE/DOCKET NO: N/A CORRESPONDENT E-MAIL ADDRESS: josephw@jpfirm.com

REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION DENIED

ISSUE/MAILING DATE: 12/19/2014

The trademark examining attorney has carefully reviewed applicant's request for reconsideration and is denying the request for the reasons stated below. See 37 C.F.R. §2.64(b); TMEP §§715.03(a)(2)(B), (a)(2)(E), 715.04(a). The requirement(s) and/or refusal(s) made final in the Office action dated 5/23/14 are maintained and continue to be final. See TMEP §§715.03(a)(2)(B), (a)(2)(E), 715.04(a).

In the present case, applicant's request has not resolved all the outstanding issue(s), nor does it raise a new issue or provide any new or compelling evidence with regard to the outstanding issue(s) in the final Office action. In addition, applicant's analysis and arguments are not persuasive nor do they shed new light on the issues. The marks are similar in appearance and the services are highly related. While "XXX" could have a connotation of pornography, it could also have another meaning that is pertinent to the subject matter. The InternetSlang.com page informs that "XXX" refers to "kisses," which are often an expression of greeting (based on the attached Collins Dictionary evidence). This connotation is more likely than a pornographic connotation because "kisses" as greetings would be seen as a typical or even sought after behavior in the field of relationships and dating.

Furthermore, even if the connotation of "XXX" was of pornographic materials, consumer confusion would still be likely. As indicated previously, the services are highly related. Neither applicant nor registrant are specifically limiting the services to "adult-related" materials or subject matter. Even if registrant's services were limited to that subject matter, the attached evidence from LivePornDating.com, PornDatingSite.com, AshleyMadison.com, and AdultFriendFinder.com shows that several companies offer websites featuring pornography that include services for organizing meetings and gatherings, conducting discussions, or chat room and message transmission services, along with software for tracking companions, communications, and correspondence.

Accordingly, the request is denied.

The filing of a request for reconsideration does not extend the time for filing a proper response to a final Office action or an appeal with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (Board), which runs from the date the final Office action was issued/mailed. See 37 C.F.R. §2.64(b); TMEP §715.03, (a)(2)(B), (a)(2)(E), (c).

If time remains in the six-month response period to the final Office action, applicant has the remainder of the response period to comply with and/or overcome any outstanding final requirement(s) and/or refusal(s) and/or to file an appeal with the Board. TMEP §715.03(a)(2)(B), (c). However, if applicant has already filed a timely notice of appeal with the Board, the Board will be notified to resume the appeal. See TMEP §715.04(a).
