On February 15, 2006, the Board issued an order with respect to applicant's third request for reconsideration of the Board's order dismissing his appeal. The Board reminded applicant of its January 6, 2006 order, in which it advised applicant that the rules do not provide for repeated request for reconsideration of Board decisions, and that applicant should not file any further papers in connection with the appeal. On March 20, 2006 applicant's application was held abandoned.

Despite the Board's clear directive to applicant not to file any further papers, applicant has filed the same request for reconsideration every month since March 2006. the Board reminds applicant yet again that he should not file any further request for reconsideration of the Board's decision. If any further papers are filed, they will not be acknowledge by the Board, nor will they be given any consideration.
