Joi Wilson, Paralegal Specialist:

On July 14, 2015, the Board granted Applicant ten days to file a request for remand accompanied by its proposed amendment to clarify the identification of goods and services Applicant wishes amended.

On August 13, 2015, Applicant filed a Request for Remand to the Examining Attorney to address amendments to three classes. However, Applicant's filing did not list the present identification of goods and services with a copy of the proposed amendment to the identification of goods and services and did not include a showing of good cause. See TBMP 1209.04

Accordingly, the request for remand for amendment to the identification of goods and services is denied. The appeal brief is noted and the electronic record of the application file is forwarded herewith to the Trademark Examining Attorney with the goods and services as presently shown in the identification that is without
