Testimonials

We just wanted to drop you a note of thanks, and extreme praise. On Wednesday evening we experienced a power outage that started our stand-by genset, but went unreported. Then the genset ran out of fuel. When we came in the next morning we weren't able to restore normal power, and with no fuel in our tank, we called your office...

Keep Fill Programs

OSCO has developed specialized keep fill programs for our customers that allow them to stop worrying about fuel inventory levels so they can have the peace of mind to focus on other priorities of the business. OSCO takes on the responsibility of maintaining customer fleets and equipment to ensure that they never run out of any fuel product they rely on to maintain their operations. We set up delivery schedules well in advance of any possible shortfall, to virtually guarantee that their operation will not experience stoppage or production slow-down due to a lack of fuel in any vehicle or piece of equipment.
