REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION
RESPONSE TO FINAL OFFICE ACTION DATED JANUARY 18, 2012

In response to the Final Office Action dated January 18, 2012 (the "Office Action") pertaining to the above-referenced application (the "Application") to register the mark TSC TRACTOR SUPPLY CO. (standard characters) (the "Applicant Mark"), for "metal tool boxes; decorative wall plaques made of common meta" (the "Goods") in International Class 06, we submit the following on behalf of Tractor Supply Co. of Texas, LP (the "Applicant").

Applicant, along with this Request for Reconsideration, has filed simultaneously a Notice of Appeal to the U.S. Trademark Trial and Appeal Board concerning the Application in the event the examining attorney should continue to maintain the refusal of the Applicant Mark.

I. NO DISCLAIMER OF THE TERM "SUPPLY" SHOULD BE REQUIRED

In the Office Action, the examining attorney has maintained that an entry of a disclaimer of the term "Supply Co." be included in the Application on grounds that such term describes "metal tool boxes; decorative wall plaques made of common metal" in that the Goods are provided, or "supplied" by the Applicant. Applicant, for the reasons set forth below and in its prior responses, maintains no disclaimer should be required for the term "supply."

Applicant, maintains the term "supply" is not merely descriptive of the Goods because: (i) the term "supply" does not provide any material insight as to the actual nature of the Goods; (ii) the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the "USPTO") has approved other similar marks for registration on the Principal Register without a. 2(f) notation and without a disclaimer of "supply"; (iii) the term "supply" simply does not immediately identify the nature of the Goods; and, finally, (iv) the TTAB, in recent non-precedential cases, has indicated that similar disclaimers should not be required in even more questionable instances involving applications for retail "supply" services.

(a) Any Uncertainty Concerning if a Term is Merely Descriptive is to be Resolved in Favor of the Applicant

In the Office Action, the examining attorney has not disagreed that when the issue of whether a term is merely descriptive or suggestive or is not clear, the question is to be resolved in favor of the applicant. See In re Gourmet Bakers, Inc., 173 USPQ 565 (TTAB 1972); In re Aids Labs, Inc., 21 USPQ 1215, 1216 (TTAB 1983). In this case, the Applicant maintains that any doubt as to the descriptiveness of the term "supply" be resolved in favor of the Applicant and that there is sufficient doubt to allow the Applicant Mark to be registered without a disclaimer of the term "supply."

(b) The Goods are not Directly Related to the Term "Supply"

For the reasons stated in Applicant's prior responses of record, Applicant avers that the relationship between the term "supply" and "metal tool boxes; decorative wall plaques made of common metal" is simply too abstract for this term to be merely descriptive of such Goods. The examining attorney has not indicated any disagreement that "supply," as used in the Applicant Mark, does not describe any actual characteristic of the Goods, other than that they are "supplied" by the Applicant.

(c) The USPTO Has Allowed the Registration of Similar Marks of Applicant on the Principal Register Without a Disclaimer of "Supply" and Prior Disclaimers of this term by Applicant Cannot be Cited Against Applicant

As evidenced in Applicant's prior response and in the registrations of record attached at collective Exhibit A hereto, Applicant is the owner of a number of similar registrations for TRACTOR SUPPLY where a disclaimer of "supply" was not required.

In recent registrations for the same applied-for mark for "t-shirts" and "caps" the USPTO did not required a disclaimer of "supply." See, Registration Nos. 4,122,190 (Registration Date April 3, 2012) and 7,7825,212 (Registration Date January 17, 2012). In these recent applications, Applicant submitted substantially identical argument to the arguments presented in favor of the registration of the Applicant Mark. The examining attorney has not offered any explanation as to why the refusal to register the Applicant Mark has been maintained and how the current matter is distinguishable from these recent registrations of Applicant.

Section 6(b) of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. §1056(b), provides that "No disclaimer . . . shall prejudice or affect the applicant's or registrant's rights then existing or thereafter arising in the disclaimed matter, or his right of registration on another application if the disclaimed matter be or shall have become distinctive of his goods or services." TMEP §1213.11 (7th ed. 2010) reads, in pertinent part, as follows:

> It is now clear that, aside from generic matter, disclaimed matter is not forever barred from registration, and it can subsequently be considered for registration on either the Principal or Supplemental Register. When an application is filed seeking registration of matter previously disclaimed, it should be examined in the same matter as other applications. See Quaker Oil Corp v. Quaker State Oil Refining Corp., 161 USPQ 547 (TTAB 1969), aff'd, 453 F.2d 1296, 172 USPQ 361 (CCPA 1972); Victor Tool & Machine Corp. v. Sun Control Awnings, Inc., 299 F. Supp. 868, 162 USPQ 389 (E.D. Mich. 1968), aff'd, 411 F.2d 792, 162 USPQ 387 (6th Cir. 1969).
> Whether or not previously disclaimed matter has become eligible of registration depends on the circumstances and the evidence adduced in the examination process. Helena Rubinstein, Inc. v. Ladd, 219 F. Supp. 259, 139 USPQ 106 (D.D.C. 1963), aff'd, 141 USPQ 623 (D.C. Cir. 1964); Roux Distributing Co., Inc. v. Duart Mfg. Co. Ltd., 114 USPQ 511 (Comm'r Pats. 1957).

Based on the foregoing (and the AMERICAN EAGLE OUTFITTERS cases attached to Applicant's prior response) Applicant respectfully submits that the reliance of the examining attorney on Applicant's prior disclaimers is misplaced and should be considered as a primary basis in the continuation of the refusal to register the Applicant Mark.

(d) The USPTO Has Allowed the Registration of Similar Third-Party Marks on the Principal Register Without a Disclaimer of "Supply"

The examining attorney's primary argument appears to be that "supply" is commonly disclaimed. Applicant respectfully submits that marks for goods and services containing the term "supply," when registered on the Principal Register without a 2(f) basis, do not require a disclaimer of this term, as illustrated by the numerous sample active registrations attached at Exhibit B hereto. Again, Applicant believes that any doubt should weigh in favor of the registration of the Applicant Mark.

(e) The Recent Non-Precedential Cases by the TTAB in Even "Closer" Matters Support that the Term "Supply" Should not be Disclaimed In this Case

In the AMERICAN EAGLE OUTFITTERS case noted in the prior response, the TTAB did not require a disclaimer of "outfitters" for certain retail store services related to a number of goods such as personal care products and jewelry. The examining attorney has not provided any explanation on how the Applicant Mark is different from this recent case.

II. CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons, and given that any doubt should be resolved in Applicant's favor, Applicant submits that the term "supply" is not descriptive of the Goods but is, at most, suggestive. Therefore, the Applicant Mark is entitled to registration on the Principal Register of the USPTO without a disclaimer of the term "supply."

Should you have questions regarding the foregoing, or should you require additional information, please contact the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,

/Mark Plotkin/

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*
What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.* See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*
What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) will NOT send you any future notice or reminder of these filing requirements.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the USPTO. The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at http://www.uspto.gov.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*
What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.* See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*
What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) will NOT send you any future notice or reminder of these filing requirements.

*ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the USPTO. The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at http://www.uspto.gov.
