MOTION TO REMAND

BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD ON APPEAL

TRADEMARK EXAMINING ATTORNEY'S REQUEST FOR REMAND

The trademark examining attorney requests that the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board remand this case to the examining attorney under 37 C.F.R. §2.142(d) for the following reason: a new examining attorney has taken over the case and wishes to supplement the evidence of record. See TBMP §1207.02.

The attached representative sampling of evidence shows that the wording "WTC" and "WORLD TRADE CENTER" fails to function as a trademark for the applied-for goods because the wording calls to mind the loss of life and associated terrorist events of September 11, 2001.

Specifically, the attached evidence from Amazon Online shows the wording "WTC" and "WORLD TRADE CENTER" used in connection with the sale of commemorative books, coins, luggage tags, stickers, bumper stickers, mouse pads, greeting cards, charms, clocks and coasters, and the attached evidence from Memorial Bracelets Online shows use of the wording "WTC" and "WORLD TRADE CENTER" in association with the sale of memorial jewelry, namely bracelets. Similarly, evidence from AMS Inc. Online attached hereto shows use of "WTC" in connection with memorial bracelets, Charm Factory Online shows "WORLD TRADE CENTER" used on a memorial charm to remember the events of 9/11/01, Barnes and Noble Online shows "WORLD TRADE CENTER" and "WTC" used on a variety of commemorative and memorial books, and the attached evidence from Ebay Online shows the wording "WTC" and "WORLD TRADE CENTER" in association with commemorative coins and medals, statuettes of precious metals and their alloys, pins, photographs, jewelry and books. The attached evidence from Etsy Online shows "WTC" and "WORLD TRADE CENTER" used by various sellers of memorial photographic prints, charms, commemorative coins and medals, key rings, decals and jewelry,

Beads and Charms Online and NYFirePolice.com both show “WTC” in connection with a memorial pin, and Cuff Links Depot Online shows “WORLD TRADE CENTER” used in connection with cuff links to remember and acknowledge the lives lost in the terrorist events of September 11, 2001. The attached evidence from CowCow.com shows the wording “WTC” used in connection with 9/11 tribute mouse pads, postcards, magnets, watches, stickers, blank USB flash drives, and earrings, “WORLD TRADE CENTER” used in connection with bags, mouse pads, cosmetic cases, purses, earrings, clocks and coin cases, each with the wording “September 11th Never Forget,” and “WORLD TRADE CENTER” and “WTC” used in connection with memorial greeting cards, netbook cases and coasters. Similarly, the attached evidence from NYC Webstore shows the wording “WORLD TRADE CENTER” used in connection with memorial posters, statuettes, art prints and lapel pins, the attached evidence from Zazzle Online shows “WTC” and “WORLD TRADE CENTER” used in connection with memorial luggage tags and also shows “WORLD TRADE CENTER” used in conjunction with commemorative messenger bags, wristlet bags, binders and holiday ornaments, and The Castle Online shows “WORLD TRADE CENTER” in connection with jewelry to remember the events of September 11. Furthermore, the attached evidence from Cafe Press Online shows “WTC” and “WORLD TRADE CENTER” used in connection with commemorative magnets, stickers, mouse pads, clocks, earrings, cell phone cases, wallets and a variety of bags, Ayaka Nishi shows “WTC” in connection with memorial pins, The City Design Group Online shows “WTC” in connection with memorial earrings, and MetalMasters Online shows “WORLD TRADE CENTER” used in connection with patriotic holiday ornaments honoring the bravery of “those...affected by the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center on September 11th.” The attached evidence from Pieces of History Online shows “WORLD TRADE CENTER” used on a commemorative key ring, Distinctive Umbrellas shows “WORLD TRADE CENTER” used in connection with a “9/11 memorial” umbrella, ESS Online shows “WORLD TRADE CENTER” used in connection with the sale of sunglasses and related efforts to “remember 9.11,” and 9/11 Tribute Center Online shows “WORLD TRADE CENTER” used in connection with commemorative tribute coins memorializing the events of 9/11/01 and “WTC” used on a tribute lapel pin and tote bag.

This evidence together begins to show the widespread use of the terms “WTC” and “WORLD TRADE CENTER” in connection with the applied-for goods to call to mind the events of 9/11/01 without any association with applicant as the source of these goods. Accordingly, this evidence supports the proposition that the wording “WTC” and “WORLD TRADE CENTER” fails to function as a trademark for the applied-for goods.

Respectfully submitted,

**NOTICE: Please specify what type of frame you would like in the "Note to..." section when you place your order. The choices of frames are: BLACK, WHITE, SILVER, BIRCH(light brown), WALNUT(dark brown). If no color is specified, you will receive a BLACK frame.**

Located in Lower Manhattan, the original complex was opened in 1973 and consisted of seven buildings. 1 World Trade Center and 2 World Trade Center (also known as the Twin Towers) were the tallest buildings in the world from 1971-1973. The Twin Towers were destroyed in 2001. The construction of the complex required large amounts of excavation which would be used as landfill to create nearby Battery Park City.

This is a reproduction of an original monoprint. **Frame and mat included.** The prints are created through a monoprint process where the photographic image is transferred onto watercolor paper. Afterwards, color pencil and occasionally gouache are used to augment the transferred image. See more information on my process in my "About" section.

This is a signed print. The image is a 5.5" x 3.7". The entire print is 8" x 10". Printed on 130 lb coated card stock. Frame dimension is 9"x11" and 1.25" deep.

16 inch box chain with a sterling silver twin tower charm attached. I bought this charm over 10 years ago and haven't seen any more since. I thought I'd take the one I have and make a necklace from it. I know for some it holds a lot of memories. On the bottom of the charm is printed NY World Trade Center. The charm alone weighs 4 grams of sterling silver.

Book Description

Publication Date: August 21, 2006

After the destruction of the World Trade Center in New York on September 11th 2001, the world-renowned photographer Joel Meyerowitz felt compelled to visit the site. In his own words, he was 'overcome by a deep impulse to help, to save, to soothe, but, being far away, there was nothing I could do. On his return, Meyerowitz soon made his way to the scene where, upon raising his camera, he was reminded by a police officer that this was a crime scene and that no photographs were allowed. Meyerowitz duly left the scene but within a few blocks the officer's reminder had turned into consciousness. ## Why Wear

The reason I purchased a Memorial Bracelet was because I lost 2 family members on September 11, 2001. Their laughs will never be heard again. Their smiles are gone except for what is in our minds, and their warmth will no longer be felt. It is in the bracelet that their memory will be carried.

I ordered this Memorial Bracelet because my neighbor was the American Airlines pilot that hit the Overview The September 11 attacks transformed all of New York City, not just the historic financial district of Lower Manhattan. In After the World Trade Center, the eminent social critics Michael Sorkin and Sharon Zukin call on eighteen of New York's best urbanists to consider the attack and its aftermath in the broadest context. These essays provide a panoramic social portrait of the city at a new crossroads, one that both reflects New York's pre-eminent role as a financial and cultural capital and reveals the fault...

Mysterious Collapse of World Trade Center 7: Why the Final Official Report about 9/11 Is Unscientific and False

by David Ray Griffin

Overview At 5:20 in the afternoon on 9/11, Building 7 of the World Trade Center collapsed, even though it had not been struck by a plane and had fires on only a few floors. The reason for its collapse was considered a mystery. In August 2008, NIST (the National Institute of Standards and Technology) issued its report on WTC 7, declaring that "the reason for the collapse of World Trade Center 7 is no longer a mystery" and that "science is really behind what we have said." Showing that neither of these claims is true, David...

Adult/High School-Mirroring the shape of the infamous towers, this book is a foot and a quarter long and eight inches across. The golden-hued photos on the front and back covers bind together a stunning pictorial history of the World Trade Center before, during, and after its construction, and the ever after of its destruction, with a mixture of diagrams and captioned photos-aged, angular, aerial, active. Some photographs fold out to poster-size. All of the graphics, whether in color or black and white or those that look monotone from the September 11 fallout, are tallies and...

Children's Literature

In his poignant introduction, Angelo Lomeo dedicates this stunning coffee table book to his Sonja Bullaty, his wife of fifty years who died in October 2000, from cancer. "It was through Sonja's love for New York City" that these photographs of the World Trade Center "—taken from every direction and spanning its twenty-eight year history?came to be." We can be grateful for their dedication as we inhale the history of the now-destroyed towers from their inception, as told by Paul Goldberger, and revel in the bittersweet glory of the incomparable twin towers.

"Tuesday, September 11th" Greeting Card

by RamonaArt $3.99

Where were you when it happened? That's the question people most often ask when talking about the 9/11 disaster. And this calendar, found remarkably undamaged in the WTC Path Station office, is a stunning reminder that the day started out like any other. It was a Tuesday morning and most people were on their way to work, when the first plane hit the World Trade Center towers. I remember I was headed back from an early networking meeting – listening to the news on the radio, when I heard the report. For the rest of my drive, analysts thought it was just a terrible accident – but when I arrived home and turned on the TV, the second plane hit and the world realized that something much darker had happened. Where were you? Review: I am new to www.cowcow.com.com, but I was aware of the website because a friend from work could not stop raving about how awesome this site is, not to mention all the cool stuff you can create that are original and make a statement. I ordered several gifts for friends, but what I was most especially excited about was the earrings!

WHY ESS

REMEMBER 9.11

ESS will proudly donate 25% of its sales from these limited edition products to the Tunnel to Towers Foundation to support the defenders of freedom and public safety, and their families.

REMEMBER 9.11 Limited Edition

The tragic events of 9.11 have left a lasting impact on all Americans, especially those that protect and defend our country. In recognition of the continued sacrifices made by military, law enforcement and firefighting professionals, ESS is proud to donate 25% of its sales from these limited edition Remember 9.11 products to the Stephen Siller 'Tunnel to Towers' Foundation, whose charitable works support these heroes and their families.

The Tunnel to Towers Foundation was created to honor the legacy of New York City firefighter Stephen Siller, who laid down his life at the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001 in order to save the lives of many others.

By raising funds through its now-nationwide 9.11 'Tunnel to Towers' runs, the Foundation promotes healing and provides hope by building customized homes for severely-wounded combat veterans, assisting the families of fallen public safety officers, and helping firefighters recover in burn centers nationwide.
