Tyrone Craven, Lead Paralegal Specialist:

On September 10, 2013, an order issued remanding the above consolidated proceedings to the Examining Attorney for consideration of the examiner's request for remand filed August 15, 2013. It has come to the attention of the Board, that all of the consolidated proceedings were not remanded to the Examining Attorney. The oversight is regretted.

On September 10, 2013, the Trademark Examining Attorney submitted a new request for remand to allow a new Examining

Exparte Appeal Nos. 85473613, 85473617, 85474746, 85474748, 85527008, 85527029, 85527100 and 85527119

Attorney who has taken over the case to supplement the evidence of record, a copy of which is attached.

In view of the reasons given therein, the request for remand is granted. Action on the consolidated proceedings is suspended, and the above-listed files are remanded to the Examining Attorney.

If another final refusal ultimately issues, the "six-month response" clause should be crossed out, and the consolidated proceedings should be returned to the Board. Action on the appeals will then be resumed and applicant will be allowed to file a supplemental appeal brief, if it so desires.
