| The Examiner has refused registration of the subject mark on the grounds that the mark is merely a surname. Applicant respectfully asserts that the subject mark should not be refused registration based on the grounds that the mark is primarily merely a surname. A mark may be refused registration for surname significance only if the mark is “primarily merely a surname.” Lanham Act Sec. 2(e)(4) [emphasis added] The TTAB has interpreted this requirement to involve a showing that the surname is “fundamentally only a surname.” In re J.J. If, as the Examiner asserts, the surname is “broadly exposed to the general public, then such surname is not rare and would be perceived by the public as primarily merely a surname.” Applicant does not disagree with this. However, there is no evidence showing that SEMBERG is “broadly exposed” to the relevant consumers. The evidence submitted by the Examiner is certainly insufficient to show the name is broadly exposed. See, In re Garan, (TTAB July 1, 1987) (Board reversed Examiner’s surname refusal asserting, among other factors, that directory and NEXIS evidence only slightly supports the Office’s position that GARAN is “primarily merely a surname”). The Examiner has presented actual evidence that only seven (7) individuals share the last name SEMBERG. Such a low number does not indicate that SEMBERG’s primary significance as a whole to the purchasing public is that of a surname. Also, data available at the webpage for the U.S. Department of Commerce – US Census Bureau - www.census.gov/genealogy/www/freqnames2k.html shows that SEMBERG is not among the 1,000 most common last names in the United States in Census 2000 (see Exhibit A), nor is it a surname that occurs 100 times or more in a U.S. Census 2011 (see http://www.census.gov/genealogy/www/data/2000surnames/ for your reference. The Board in In re | |

Sava Research Corporation, TTAB (July 29, 1994) stated that the 100+ listings of SAVA through the U.S. would indicate that this is not an extremely rare surname, however, when considering the millions of listings as a whole, 100+ listings is indeed evidence of the rarity of the name. There are less than 100 listings of SHEMBERG as a surname, according to the U.S. Census Bureau, this is a rare surname. The population of the United States is now more than 310 million (See Exhibit B). A surname that is listed less than 100 times in a U.S. census is an insignificant number when compared to 310 million.

TTAB Judge Seeherman notes in her concurring opinion in In re Joint-Stock Company "Baik," 84 USPQ2d 1921 that:

The purpose behind prohibiting the registration of marks that are primarily merely surnames is not to protect the public from exposure to surnames, as though there were something offensive in viewing a surname. Rather, the purpose behind Section 2(e)(4) is to keep surnames available for people who wish to use their own surnames in their businesses, in the same manner that merely descriptive terms are prohibited from registration because competitors should be able to use a descriptive term to describe their own goods or services.

Judge Seeherman explained that if a surname is rare, it is also unlikely that someone other than the applicant will want to use the same surname for the same or related goods or services as the applicant. She concludes:

Therefore, if the Office is not able to muster sufficient evidence to show that the mark is the surname of a reasonable number of people, ... I believe that it is not proper to refuse registration. In re Joint-Stock Company "Baik," 84 USPQ2d 1921 (TTAB 2007)

As for the second factor, the mark SHEMBERG was created from an acronym of the initial letters of the first names of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Ernesto Dakay, Sr., the founders of Shemberg Marketing Corporation in 1966, a corporation that started using this name since May 1966 and later transferred it to Pacific Poly Gums Holding Corporation, its holding company. The names of the Dakay's children that compose the acronym are listed below:

S – Shirley

H – Henry

E – Ernesto, Jr.

M – Mario

B – Benson

E – Eliza

R – Ramon

G – Grace

In addition, SHEMBERG is not the last name of any person associated with the Applicant; it is not the last name of a founder, member, or officer. This factor weighs in Applicant's favor. See, In re Sava Research Corporation, TTAB (July 29, 1994).

As for the third factor, although SHEMBERG is not a dictionary term, this does not mean that SHEMBERG is primarily merely, or as the TTAB puts it, fundamentally only a surname. In re P.J. Fitzpatrick, Inc., 95 USPQ2d 1412 (TTAB 2010).

As for the fourth factor, the Examiner states that Shemberg has a structure and pronunciation similar to that of other surnames. However, Applicant notes with interest third party applications and registrations for the following marks which also have the structure and pronunciation of a surname (TARR copies attached Exhibit C): WHITE (Reg. No. 3797617); DRAKE (Reg. No. 4002998); HENRY (Reg. No. 3994864); MONCADA (Reg. No. 3275836); ROSEN (Reg. No. 3113749); ROSEN (Reg. No. 3223809); and ROSEN (Reg. No. 2202467).

Surely evidence of these third party marks is significant and reduces the likelihood that SHEMBERG is primarily merely a surname. Applicant asserts that based on this evidence, its mark should also be allowed to register.

The fifth factor does not apply here because the mark is not stylized.

Applicant stated above that it disagrees with the Examiner’s interpretation of “primarily merely.” As stated in In re Harris-Intertype Corp., 186 USPQ 238, 239 (CCPA 1975, quoting, Ex parte Rivera Watch Corp., 106 USPQ 145 (Comm’r 1955), in surname cases, the Board must determine the impact the term has or would have on the purchasing public because “it is that impact or impression which should be evaluated in determining whether or not the primary significance of a word when applied to a product is a surname significance. If it is, and it is only that, then it is primarily merely a surname.” (Emphasis in original). This is the definition to be applied to “primarily merely.” When it is, Applicant’s mark cannot be deemed to be primarily, merely a surname.

In sum, the fact that (1) SEMBERG is a rare surname, and (2) other third party marks having the look and feel of a surname have achieved registration, leads to the conclusion that the term is not primarily merely a surname. The refusal to register under Section 2(e)(4) should be withdrawn. The applicant notes that the TTAB has held that in surname refusal cases “if there is any doubt, we must resolve the doubt in favor of applicant.” In re Bentin Management GmbH, 37 USPQ2d 1332 (TTAB 1995).

PTO Form 1930 (Rev 9/2007)
OMB No. 0651-0050 (Exp. 05/31/2014)

Request for Reconsideration after Final Action To the Commissioner for Trademarks:

Application serial no. 85638676 has been amended as follows:

ARGUMENT(S)

In response to the substantive refusal(s), please note the following:

The Examiner has refused registration of the subject mark on the grounds that the mark is merely a surname. Applicant respectfully asserts that the subject mark should not be refused registration based on the grounds that the mark is primarily merely a surname.

A mark may be refused registration for surname significance only if the mark is “primarily merely a surname.” Lanham Act Sec. 2(e)(4) [emphasis added] The TTAB has interpreted this requirement to involve a showing that the surname is “fundamentally only a surname.” In re J.J. Yeley, 85 USPQ2d 1150 (TTAB 2007)

The factors used to determine whether a mark is primarily merely a surname are:

- (1) The rareness of the surname;
- (2) Whether anyone connected with the applicant uses the mark as a surname;
- (3) Whether the term has any recognized meaning other than as a surname;
- (4) Whether the mark has the structure and pronunciation of a surname; and
- (5) Whether the mark is sufficiently stylized to remove its primary significance from that of a surname.

See In re Benthin Management GmbH, 37 USPQ2d 1332 (TTAB 1995).

Applicant disagrees with the Examiner’s interpretation of “primarily merely”.

As for the first factor, there is no dispute that the word SHEMBERG is a surname and appears in phone listings and related articles. If, as the Examiner asserts, the surname is “broadly exposed to the general public, then such surname is not rare and would be perceived by the public as primarily merely a surname.” Applicant does not disagree with this. However, there is no evidence showing that SEMBERG is “broadly exposed” to the relevant consumers. The evidence submitted by the Examiner is certainly insufficient to show the name is broadly exposed. See, In re Garan, (TTAB July 1, 1987) (Board reversed Examiner’s surname refusal asserting, among other factors, that directory and NEXIS evidence only slightly supports the Office’s position that GARAN is “primarily merely a surname”). The Examiner has presented actual evidence that only seven (7) individuals share the last name SEMBERG. Such a low number does not indicate that SEMBERG’s primary significance as a whole to the purchasing public is that of a surname. Also, data available at the webpage for the U.S. Department of Commerce – US Census Bureau - www.census.gov/genealogy/www/freqnames2k.html shows that SEMBERG is not among the 1,000 most common last names in the United States in Census 2000 (see Exhibit A), nor is it a surname that occurs 100 times or more in a U.S. Census 2011 (see <http://www.census.gov/genealogy/www/data/2000surnames/> for your reference. The Board in In re Sava Research Corporation, TTAB (July 29, 1994) stated that the 100+ listings of SAVA through the U.S. would indicate that this is not an extremely rare surname, however, when considering the millions of listings as a whole, 100+ listings is indeed evidence of the rarity of the name. There are less than 100 listings of SEMBERG as a surname, according to the U.S. Census Bureau, this is a rare surname. The population of the United States is now more than 310 million (See Exhibit B). A surname that is listed less than 100 times in a U.S. census is an insignificant number when compared to 310 million. TTAB Judge Seeherman notes in her concurring opinion in In re Joint-Stock Company “Baik,” 84 USPQ2d 1921 that:

The purpose behind prohibiting the registration of marks that are primarily merely surnames is not to protect the public from exposure to surnames, as though there were something offensive in viewing a surname. Rather, the purpose behind Section 2(e)(4) is to keep surnames available for people who wish to use their own surnames in their businesses, in the same manner that merely descriptive terms are prohibited from registration because competitors should be able to use a descriptive term to describe their own goods or services.

Judge Seeherman explained that if a surname is rare, it is also unlikely that someone other than the applicant will want to use the same surname for the same or related goods or services as the applicant. She concludes:

Therefore, if the Office is not able to muster sufficient evidence to show that the mark is the surname of a reasonable number of people, ... I believe that it is not proper to refuse registration. In re Joint-Stock Company “Baik,” 84 USPQ2d 1921 (TTAB 2007)

As for the second factor, the mark SEMBERG was created from an acronym of the initial letters of the first names of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Ernesto Dakay, Sr., the founders of Shemberg Marketing Corporation in 1966, a corporation that started using this name since May 1966 and later transferred it to Pacific Poly Gums Holding Corporation, its holding company. The names of the Dakay’s children that compose the acronym are listed below:

S – Shirley
H – Henry
E – Ernesto, Jr.
M – Mario
B – Benson
E – Eliza
R – Ramon
G – Grace

In addition, SEMBERG is not the last name of any person associated with the Applicant; it is not the last name of a founder, member, or officer. This factor weighs in Applicant’s favor. See, In re Sava Research Corporation, TTAB (July 29, 1994).

As for the third factor, although SHEMBERG is not a dictionary term, this does not mean that SHEMBERG is primarily merely, or as the TTAB puts it, fundamentally only a surname. In re P.J. Fitzpatrick, Inc., 95 USPQ2d 1412 (TTAB 2010).

As for the fourth factor, the Examiner states that Shemberg has a structure and pronunciation similar to that of other surnames. However, Applicant notes with interest third party applications and registrations for the following marks which also have the structure and pronunciation of a surname (TARR copies attached Exhibit C): WHITE (Reg. No. 3797617); DRAKE (Reg. No. 4002998); HENRY (Reg. No. 3994864); MONCADA (Reg. No. 3275836); ROSEN (Reg. No. 3113749); ROSEN (Reg. No. 3223809); and ROSEN (Reg. No. 2202467).

Surely evidence of these third party marks is significant and reduces the likelihood that SHEMBERG is primarily merely a surname. Applicant asserts that based on this evidence, its mark should also be allowed to register.

The fifth factor does not apply here because the mark is not stylized.

Applicant stated above that it disagrees with the Examiner's interpretation of "primarily merely." As stated in In re Harris-Intertype Corp., 186 USPQ 238, 239 (CCPA 1975, quoting, Ex parte Rivera Watch Corp., 106 USPQ 145 (Comm'r 1955), in surname cases, the Board must determine the impact the term has or would have on the purchasing public because "it is that impact or impression which should be evaluated in determining whether or not the primary significance of a word when applied to a product is a surname significance. If it is, and it is only that, then it is primarily merely a surname." (Emphasis in original). This is the definition to be applied to "primarily merely." When it is, Applicant's mark cannot be deemed to be primarily, merely a surname.

In sum, the fact that (1) SHEMBERG is a rare surname, and (2) other third party marks having the look and feel of a surname have achieved registration, leads to the conclusion that the term is not primarily merely a surname. The refusal to register under Section 2(e)(4) should be withdrawn. The applicant notes that the TTAB has held that in surname refusal cases "if there is any doubt, we must resolve the doubt in favor of applicant." In re Benthin Management GmbH, 37 USPQ2d 1332 (TTAB 1995).

EVIDENCE

Evidence in the nature of Exhibit A - 1,000 most common last names in the United States in Census 2000
Exhibit B - The population of the United States is now more than 310 million - U.S. Census Exhibit C - TARR copies has been attached.
