Even sensitive or dehydrated skin is beautifully conditioned with hand lotions containing herbs, essential oils, vitamins and moisturizing oils. You will find the finest ingredients from organic farms in our natural hand care lotions, but you'll never find sulfates, parabens or petroleum products. The look and feel of your hands is dramatically improved with the healing properties of an organic lotion. Baby-soft skin begins in nature, and only natural elements can replenish a balance of health and hydration. Our natural skin lotions provide ultra-moisturizing properties, as they treat and protect skin. The ingredients in our natural skin care lotions come directly from plants, rather than being produced synthetically. So from hands to feet, your dry, flaky and ashy skin receives immediate relief. Pair an organic skin lotion with a natural body wash for the ultimate in cleaning and skin conditioning.
