RESPONSE TO OFFICE ACTION

Mark: NOVELTYLIGHTS
Serial No. 86207745
Applicant: Novelty Lights, Inc.

Applicant filed its application for the mark NOVELTYLIGHTS for use with “Accent lights for indoor use; Electric holiday lights; Electric light bulbs; Electric lights for Christmas trees; LED (light emitting diodes) lighting fixtures for use in display, commercial, industrial, residential, and architectural accent lighting applications; Light bulbs” in International Goods Class 11 (“The Applied for Mark”) on February 28, 2014. On June 10, 2014 the examining attorney issued an office action rejecting the application based on the assertion that the Applied for Mark is merely descriptive and offered the opportunity for the Applicant to respond to the office action or to amend the mark to the Supplemental Register. The Examining Attorney did not issue a generic warning at that time. In response, the Applicant amended its application to assert that even if the Applied for Mark is merely descriptive, it has acquired distinctiveness through Applicant’s continuous and exclusive use of the mark for the previous 5 years. On February 6, 2015 the Examining Attorney issued a second office action continuing the original merely descriptive refusal and declared Applicant’s 2(f) declaration of five years use to be insufficient due to the fact that the Applied for Mark is allegedly “highly descriptive of applicant’s goods.” The Examining Attorney once again offered the Applicant the opportunity to respond to the office action or amend the application to the Supplemental Registry. Once again the Examining Attorney did not include a rejection based on genericness, nor did he issue a genericness warning to Applicant. On April 29, 2015 Applicant responded to the Examining Attorney’s office action presenting arguments that the Applied for Mark is not merely descriptive, and in the alternative that even if the mark is to be deemed merely descriptive, the Applied for Mark has acquired distinctiveness under Section 2(f) of the Trademark Act. On May 27th 2015, the examining attorney issued an additional non-final office action reasserting that the applied for mark was merely descriptive under Section 2(e)(1) of the Trademark Act; that the evidence supplied by Applicant was insufficient to establish Acquired Distinctiveness under Section 2(f) of the Trademark Act; and added a new rejection based on Section 2(e)(1) that the mark is generic. On November 25, 2015 the Applicant responded to the Examining Attorney’s office action establishing: 1) the Examining Attorney did not meet their heightened burden of a substantial showing that the applied for mark is generic; 2) that the Examining Attorney improperly applied the test for genericness with respect to both the first and second prongs of the test for genericness set forth in H. Marvin Ginn Corp. v. Int’l Ass’n of Fire Chiefs, Inc.; 3) that even if the Applied for Mark is considered merely descriptive under Section 2(e)(1) of the Trademark Act, the applicant has established Acquired Distinctiveness under Section 2(f) of the Trademark Act and submitted additional evidence of the Applied for Mark’s acquired distinctiveness. On January 4, 2016 the examining attorney issued a final office action maintaining their rejections of the Applied for Mark based on the Examining Attorney’s claim of genericness and that the Applied for Mark is merely descriptive under Section 2(e)(1) of the Trademark Act. The Applicant hereby requests reconsideration of the Examining Attorney's final rejection and hereby submits additional evidence for the Examining Attorney's consideration. Additionally, Applicant is appealing the Examining Attorney's determination to the Trial and Appeals Board.

The Applied For Mark is Not Generic Under Section 2(e)(1) of the Trademark Act.

A mark is a generic name if it refers primarily to the class genus or category of services in connection with which it is used. In re Dial-A-Mattress Operating Corp. 240 F.3d 1341, 57 USPQ2d 1807, 1810 (Fed. Cir. 2001). In determining whether a mark is generic, the appropriate focus is its primary significance to the relevant public. Magic Wand Inc. v. RDB Inc., 940 F.2d 638, 19 USPQ2d 1551, 1552-53 (Fed. Cir. 1991); H. Marvin Ginn Corp. v. Int'l Ass'n of Fire Chiefs, Inc., 782 F.2d 987, 228 USPQ 528, 530 (Fed. Cir. 1986). Whether a mark is generic is a question of fact. In re Hotels.com LP, 573 F.3d 1300, 91 USPQ2d 1532, 1533-34 (Fed. Cir. 2009). The burden rests with the Trademark Examining Attorney to establish that the mark sought to be registered is generic for the services as recited in the application. In re Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, Inc., 828 F.2d 1567, 4 USPQ2d 1141, 1143 (Fed. Cir. 1987)(emphasis added). The Examining Attorney has to make a "substantial showing ... that the matter is in fact generic." Id. The substantial showing must be based on clear evidence that a mark is generic and thus unregistrable. Id. Therefore, it is beyond dispute that a "strong showing is required when the Office seeks to establish that a term is generic." In re K-T Zoe Furniture, Inc., 16 F.3d 390, 29 USPQ2d 1787, 1788 (Fed. Cir. 1994). Any doubt whatsoever on the issue of genericness must be resolved in favor of the applicant. In re Waverly Inc., 27 USPQ2d 1620, 1624 (TTAB 1993). The determination of whether a term is generic involves a two part test: first, what is the category or class of the goods or services at issue; and second, is the mark sought to be registered understood by the relevant public primarily to refer to that category of goods or services? H. Marvin Ginn Corp., 228 USPQ at 530.

With regard to the first element, the genus of the goods or services is deemed to be the goods description set forth in the application. Magic Wand, Inc., 228 USPQ2d at 1552 ("[A] proper genericness inquiry focuses on the description of services set forth in the [application or] certificate of registration"). However, instead of accepting the recitation of the goods and services in the application, the examining attorney contends (without any support) that the category of the goods or services at issue is conveniently the term NOVELTY LIGHTS. Applicant raised this issue in its November 25, 2015 office action response. In its final office action, the examining attorney once again argues that the answer to the question of what goods are at issue is the Applied for Mark¹. The Examining Attorney's continued reliance on circular logic in applying the first prong of the Ginn test is indicative of the Examining Attorney's outcome determinative approach to their "analysis" of genericness. The Examining Attorney has not provided any support for the contention that the genus of the goods is NOVELTYLIGHTS. Furthermore, NOVELTYLIGHTS cannot be the genus of the goods as it is not a word recognized in the English language. See Exhibits A and B. Although dictionary listings or definitions cannot be conclusive of genericness, “if for no other reason that that this would endow editors of such works with the power to destroy trademarks, merely by defining them generically”, In re Minnetonka, Inc., 212 U.S.P.Q. 772, 778, 1981 WL 40467 (T.T.A.B. 1981), several courts deem dictionary listings to be influential because they reflect the general public’s perception of a mark’s meaning and implication e.g. Murphy Door Bed Co., Inc. v. Interior Sleep Systems, Inc., 874 F.2d 95 (2nd Cir. 1989). Additionally the absence of a dictionary listing for DOLCELATTE which was sought to be registered in relation to cheese was found to be pertinent evidence with regard to the nongeneric nature of the applied for mark. In re Bel Paese Sales Co., 1 U.S.P.Q.2d 1233, 1986 WL 83304 (T.T.A.B. 1986). As shown by Exhibits A and B neither NOVELTYLIGHTS, nor NOVELTY LIGHTS are listed in the dictionary previously used by the Examining Attorney. Therefore, Applicant respectfully submits that the absence of NOVELTYLIGHTS and/or NOVELTY LIGHTS in any English Language dictionary that has been brought to their attention is relevant evidence which raises sufficient doubt concerning any intimation that NOVELTYLIGHTS is a generic term for the goods listed in the application’s goods description so as to justify the Examining Attorney to rescind the rejection and allow the mark to publish for opposition.

Likewise, the Examining Attorney fails to carry their burden with regard to the second element of the Ginn test. In support of the contention that consumers associate the Applied for Mark with the genus of the goods, the examining attorney references eleven commercial websites and 39 articles which it alleges evidence consumer’s impression of the Applied for Mark. However, the Examining Attorney’s evidence is exceedingly weak due to the fact that, at most, it is evidence of retail usage of the term. It does not, however, provide insight into whether consumers see the term NOVELTYLIGHTS as referring primarily of the genus of the goods. Magic Wand, Inc., 228 USPQ2d at 1553 (“the 1984 amendment makes the test for genericness the primary significance of the mark to the relevant public to actual or potential purchasers of the goods or services.”)(Emphasis added). Conversely, the Applicant hereby submits actual evidence of consumer perception in the form of consumer reviews and correct trademark usage of the Applied for Mark. See Exhibits C and D. Exhibit D is a consolidation of the consumer reviews that utilize the term NOVELTY LIGHTS or some variation. The results indicate correct trademark usage (capital letters signifying a trademark) in 90 out of 98 cases, which represents approximately 92% correct usage. This is strong evidence that the actual consuming public views the term NOVELTYLIGHTS as a trademark as opposed to a generic term and at minimum, when combined with the alleged evidence proposed by the examining attorney (assuming it is representative of consumer’s perception, which it does not) shows mixed usage. Therefore, given the forgoing evidence the Applicant respectfully submits that the examining attorney has also failed to carry their burden of establishing by a substantial showing that the primary significance of the term with consumers is the genus of the goods and services.

Additional Evidence of Acquired Distinctiveness Under Section 2(f) of the Trademark Act.

In addition to the arguments previously presented and the materials previously submitted, the Applicant hereby submits Exhibits C and D as further evidence of the acquired distinctiveness of the Applied for Mark. Exhibits C and D contain product reviews posted by consumers. The exhibits clearly establish that through the consistent capitalization of the terms NOVELTY and/or LIGHTS by consumers, consumers recognize the terms as a brand and trademark as opposed to a descriptive term.

Therefore, given the forgoing the Applicant requests that the examining attorney rescind the office action and allow the Applied for Mark to publish in the Official Gazette.

"I am giving this vendor five stars because of my customer service experience. They tried to help me find exactly what I needed, and also explained lighting to me in a way that I could understand. Unfortunately, they did not carry one of the products I was looking for, but they did have one item that I couldn't find anywhere else -- and, believe me, I looked everywhere! I will definitely go to them again!"

This is the second order that I have placed with your company. I don't use the bulbs for any holiday, I use them as night light bulbs that I have throughout my home. The light that your bulbs emit is enough to walk all over my home without it being too bright.

Whenever I need more bulbs for my night lights I will use Novelty Lights again."

The lights that I ordered from your company arrived quickly and were exactly what I was looking for. They fit into the hat of an Uncle Sam craft project that I was making and now he glows beautifully. Will definitely recommend you to my fellow crafters. " one of the chili pepper strings didn't work at all. Also 5 of the solar light strings 2 were dead when received and 3 died a few days later. Also several of the light strings when it rained they faded in color, also the white icesicles the middle of the string quite working. I will never buy from you again I am very very very dissatisfied with some of these lights. Very poor quality as far as I can see , and the solar ones were not good at all. ."

I've been buying chili lights from other vendors, and enjoy them. We tend to leave them on nearly always, so they occasionally need replacement. I stumbled into Novelty Lights sort of by luck, but I'm so glad that I did. The lights appear to be superior to what we've been buying, and the prompt service amazed me (perhaps four days from order to delivery). They included a catalog of a wide range of other holiday-oriented stuff, which tells me that I will be doing much more business with this company! I'm truly impressed."

"I was very satisfied with the services from your company. I have ordered lights in the past through your company. I always received my order very quickly and the lights last a long time. I use them in my home. However the only problem I had the last time was having the order ship to another address. Perhaps I input the info incorrectly, not sure what happened. Perhaps the method of payment determined the shipping address. Not sure."

The lights came fast in the mail. Thanks! I appreciate the quick service. I plugged the lights in to see if they were working, and they were in perfect condition. I will not need them until next Christmas probably. I'll get more light sets from your company. "

"I usually find my Christmas replacement bulbs (C-7) @ Lowes/Home Depot, AFTER the season; however, due to medical reasons I was unable to do so this year. I "found" Novelty Lights on the web, and located the bulbs I needed/wanted. I was skeptical about the quality/price, but ordered anyhow. Received my order in a very short time, and was very pleasantly surprised at the quality of said bulbs; and the PRICE was unbelievable. I WILL be ordering more Holiday lighting from them. Thank you for being there when I needed you."

I'm a happy gal. I love to outline my front door with C9 multi on a timer all night. For years the only replacement colors offered locally in stores were red blue green. This season thanks to Novelty my replacements include yellow orange white!! My order arrived as estimated. Each box of 25 was shock absorb protected and packaged securely. Well done, much appreciated!!"

Very pleased I found your website and placed an immediate order. The ease of ordering, the fast delivery, and most importantly, the quality or your lights and customer service is truly outstanding.

Verified Customer

For years it has been difficult to find replacement C-7 transparent bulbs, and one can not find the replacement colors of pink and purple to add more contrast without buying a new string of lights (if you can find them for sale).

You had them all individually available and in mixed boxes. Just what I needed. Remarkably, you also have them in blinking.

I have about 50 strings of C-7, 25 bulbs, over 1200 lights. For the first time I know I can now always get replacement bulbs and equipment at very reasonable prices from you.

Glad to know that I can now begin converting to your C-7 LED bulbs and can still use all those light strings I have.

Thanks for restoring confidence of knowing C-7 bulbs are still being made and are available through you. My house in Phoenix, AZ looks great with over 800 lights.
Merry Christmas--Gary G."

Hi everyone...Merry Christmas to you.

Verified Customer

This is my 3rd order this season and I just wanted to let you know that a variety of the bulbs, both blinker AND solid that I purchased this year either did not work or stopped working shortly after installation. It seemed to happen the working shortly after installing...it seemed to happen the most with the yellow/clear non blinkers, the teal/clear non blinkers, the pink/clear non blinkers and the amber blinkers (see previous orders)...I don't know why it was those in particular, but many of them had to be thrown away. Just thought you would like to know.

THANKS,

Mark

 The above was what I entered in the comments section while making my third order of the season. Just checked my latest delivery....here is a little hint, (and maybe it's just me), but I would have tossed a couple extra bulbs in the box for good measure, but again, that's just me...someone who knows what stellar customer care is about."

The shipment arrived quickly and the process for ordering was extremely easy. The only problem I had was my addition for how many boxes I needed. But I cannot thank you so much for bringing back my childhood memories with the "real" flashing lights! My children from 17-23 still lay on the floor with me and watch my tree lights on the ceiling. Too bad I did not have enough, I had to skimp on the back, but I LOVE THEM!!!!!!!!!!!! Merry Christmas!

Like most consumers, I shop price and expect to get what I pay for. These lights and stringers are serviceable; barely. Yes they're Chinese, but the bar has been severely lowered here. The surfacing/color tint on the bulbs scratches very easily and one of the 100 ft black stringers blew fuses and a 15 amp breaker. Customer service was prompt replacing the defective stringer, but my guess is these guys go home completely worn out each day fielding calls on their products. Pay your money...take your chances. "

Unfortunately although I paid for 3 day shipping, I recieved only part of the order in time. The rest arrived days later. The lights were good - price was good, but timing was important it I wouldn't have paid extra in the first place"

"My order was delivered today 12/8/14 around 11am. UPS had delivery issue as stated on the tracking log. Its the busy time anyway and I understand. I installed the 150 foot reel of rope lights today as well...and it looks awesome. I ran the rope under the eaves of my home and it gives off this reflective light off the walls...I now have the best Christmas lights in the neighborhood. One thing to add...whoever packaged my order only used one strip of packing tape which was almost open when UPS dropped it off. The package had some weight to it and the tape was torn down the middle with only about 4 inches intact. You may want to double or triple the tape up or content may spill out like the clips and extra power cords. Other than that...I will order from you again...but I will always be wondering now if everything I order will be in the box. Thank you for the great product. I will be ordering another 150 foot reel next year to go around the side and back of my home. By the way...the email updates on the status of my order were very nice. Thanks again!"

Novelty shipped on time in two boxes. Order came after a snafu where UPS did not deliver those two boxes; just one + a box for someone else. UPS recorded the delivery as complete, but that was an error. After a letter to Novelty, they responded...but....they could up their professionalism quite a bit. There was no salutation in their email to me, just a question as if I was an acquaintance they had communicated with many times. This is unacceptable for a business who prides themselves in professionalism.

It was obvious the man who wrote did not read nor familiarize himself with the details because he asked a question that had already been answered in the initial email from me. In addition, he did not answer the question that I posed to the company. ie: His question seemed rude because he did not address me - I am, after all, a complete stranger to him, nor did he answer my questions or indicate what, if anything, Novelty was doing to straighten out the delivery mistake.

UPS was certainly contacted by Novelty because the next day in the mid-afternoon, the correct box was delivered. I informed Novelty by email that the package was received but was never answered or acknowledged for the communication. Again, that seemed rude and uncaring to me.

All in all, the product is fine. The people are lacking in social graces."

The lights arrived super fast. But the life span of these bulbs are not impressive. They've been up and running for three days and ive had to replace four. Disappointing because the red and white ones I purchased the year before worked great.

Id still buy from these guys because they're the cheapest and they have a good selection. "

I ordered the wrong size of replacement bulbs for my Christmas lights thinking there was only one size. When they came, they were the small kind that go on a Christmas tree and I thought I was ordering the large ones to go on the outside of the house. So I called and they said they would send the larger size out immediately the same day and then credit me back for the ones I returned as soon as they received them. I got a confirmation e-mail saying they were on their way."

We have candelabra's in every window of our home, we have had a hard time finding the orange color - I found them on this web site, ordered them and they where here within 2 days.

All the bulbs where in tacked - have not used any yet - but if they work we will definitely use this site again."

One section of the light rope I bought did not work. I had to splice in another working section. It was very hard to get the connections to the splice to work right. The LED lights are suppose to last 50,000 hours, but that does not do much good if they don't work to begin with."

I received notice the same day that I ordered that my order had been filled the same day. The very next day I received confirmation that it had shipped with an estimated time of delivery...it was at my doorstep one day earlier.

The lights were delivered quickly and exactly what I ordered. They look great on my porch where I have them on a timer to come on for a few hours at dusk. I choose the gold and purple to correspond to the LSU colors and the look they give when they are on is awesome. I liked them so much I bought some to give as Christmas presents."

The Novelty Lights site was thorough and offered a WIDE variety of lights and accessories. I liked the non led lights that had different lengths and different spacing on the lights. I will come back to this site year after year and continue to build on what I have purchased this year. "

The key bulbs came on time and in perfect condition. They are a cool design that look like incandescent when lit. The light is nice and warm. Assuming they last as long as touted, I'm thrilled! I'll write a follow-up review in 30 years to let people know if they lasted :-)"

Ordered 2 boxes of C-7 replacement bulbs last year, each box had only 1 bulb that didn't work. I have worked at a packer before, and we used UPS, USPS, FedEx, DHL, and things get tossed onto trucks fast at times. Understandable things get tossed around. I ordered a box the other week, it arrived very fast, and with UPS, you have to sign for it, so that's good. I love this place, and I plan on ordering some more real soon. I would recommend them to others. I have done this 3 times, and it keeps throwing numbers and symbols in when I click on finish and share. Plus, I won't be checking this box until closer to Christmas"

"I have ordered these lights for a restaurant patio. They were great to deal with and spent a lot of time with me choosing the right lights. 6 months later I had some trouble with some of the bulbs not working. They replaced the strand without a fuss and I had the replacement in a few days. I will always order from them. Great customer service."

Since I haven't put the bulbs into the sets yet, I can only assume they work. The only problem (which is no big deal) was that one of the bulbs was broken, and it was shattered all over the package. So I immediately checked all the other boxes - all o.k. Looking forward to them on my house this Christmas."

My twinkle lights for my haunted house will make my life complete at Halloween. Last year I just couldn't find my lights and even though I had to get a few more than I needed, the price was great and I appreciate the very prompt service. Thanks."

I purchased a few orders of novelty lights, for my models I built. my models include a carousel motorized cars, motorized swings swinging planes and ferris wheel. all are lit up with the lights I purchased from novelty lights. the lights some blinking, some static are fantastic. i will have them all on display at Hofstra university on long island ny. and I want to thank your customer service for sending my a replacement for one defective switch. I consider novelty lights a professional company, thank you all

I tried all over the website to find the light sets and bulbs that I finally found at Novelty Lights, Inc. Your online order procedure was simple to do because your online catalogue was easy to navigate.

Your online reply concerning receipt of order, shipping information, etc. was much appreciated and accurate! The order was received as promised and well packaged!

Thanks again for having a great product and heads up customer care.

"I have 5 weeks to put on a reception - With only 2 and a half weeks to go I ordered lights. The site was easy to use as well as easy to place an order. I was surprised when my order arrived in less than 7 days and had to wait for my email to give a review. Thanks for the great service, quick processing time and especially your professionalism with how you run your company!"

same day. Received my lights . I did plug them in and they came on and twinkled. Am going to put on my large cross in middle of yard, for a Patriotic theme, they are sparkly and fun to watch. The kids on school buses will like them. Thanks to rep at Novelty for inquiring, she is on thee ball and very pleasant. Thanks , Love these lights and want the red ones now, that twinkle will order more. Great representative and great Lights. Thank you."

When the order arrived I check it and was shipped the wrong merchandise. When I called customer service, Brandon was polite and he got the correct order out and included a return label for the wrong merchandise. And I have already reordered same lights since the green wire is out of stock. And I need the lights like last week. But so far I am happy with Novelty Lights.

This was my second order with Novelty Lights. Both my first and second order arrived on time and the items were packaged excellently. I received what I ordered and everything is working as expected. Concerning my first order the exterior colored film on the G50 bulbs started peeling off after about 6 months, I called Novelty about this and without hesitation they sent me new G50 bulbs at no charge including paying for the shipping. They explained that the newer bulbs had the coloring on the interior of the bulb instead of the exterior. This is what I call GREAT service. I will continue to buy from Novelty Lights for any lighting needs at our store. "

This was the second time I purchased products from NoveltyLights and each purchase has been an excellent experience. Both times I have had personal attention and it is a 'breath of fresh air'. I highly recommend anyone in the market for lighting, etc., to consider trying NoveltyLights. I work for a county museum and we must work with small budgets. Novelty lights is competitive with their product pricing and the quality of product has been superb."

I received some lights for a Christmas present. The order was for purple lights. When they're plugged in they light up a raspberry color. I called novelty lights. The service rep acted like "of course they're not purple, what were you expecting?" Well, burn me once shame on you burn me twice shame on me because I stupidly tried another kind of light bulb hoping the clear would be purple. No it was a raspberry color too. So I return them. Had to pay shipping both ways. I'd think when you are lead to believe you're buying one thing yet you get something very different you could at least expect a refund of shipping expense. But no. "

"I had 1 up broken out of 6 packs (of 3 each) of bubble lights. I spoke to Dennis and he is sending me a replacement pack with no question. How awesome is that? Will spread the word to friends and family about you guys. Very pleased!"

The Novelty Lights website was easy to navigate, their product selection is excellent and very modestly priced. My lights were carefully packed in a sturdy box, arrived timely as promised and glow exactly as advertised. Should I have needed it, a convenient form for proper return of any disputed or damaged items was included with my order. I could not ask for a better online purchase!!"

I opened the box today given bad weather the past two weeks. The unit is made upside down and the core is white vs black per my three other units.

I like the lights. I was trying to match the other three, told them so, and got a total mismatch.

The box was all beat up from rough handling by the UPS team. "

Shipping was immediate, product packaging and packing for shipment was flawless. Price was competitive. Quality high. Plus, you are in Colorado--where I am! I got each shipment within 2 days. The only thing that was not perfect was that the color of purple was a little wimpy--and this has been what I have found with all other manufacturers as well. I am looking for a very deep plum purple like they used to have on the translucent glass incandescent bulbs and currently make in other LEDs. Can't find it anywhere in Christmas lights. Like this:
http://www.customdynamics.com/Images/stingerz_purple_new.jpg or <http://www.nitroplanes.com/79p-10203.html?gclid=CLWHi-uKxbsCFa4-Mgod7W0AOA> or <http://www.storybookchristmastrees.com/2010/07/outdoor-led-christmas-lights.html> Call me if you know better--303.663.2100 --Frank"

Your company is spot on with service and value for my pocket book. I am so very satisfied !! If I could suggest something I would love to find ? I cannot seem to find Christmas Angels for my outside display. The few I find are poorly made , so thought you dear folks might consider looking into something like that for 2014. Blessings and prosperity for you and your company in the coming New Year."

"I had been looking for specific replacement bulb for years and was suprised to see not only those here but a varity of other as well. I was able to buy an assorted box of colored replacement bulbs where other companies limited a full order to one color. The site was very user friendly. I will definately revisit this sight for future purchases. "

Third order we have converted out old C7 strings to all LED. About 200 .65W LEDs consume around 120W versus 1000W for the same number of 5W incandescent C7's. We have been very happy with the products and timely delivery. Thanks for the catalog.

I received my shipment of 5 boxes of 25ea G30 multi-color satin bulbs in a timely manner. However the box which was labeled 25ea purple was instead a mix of multi color bulbs which only had 5 purple bulbs , leaving me 20 short. I called immediately. They explained they are a distributor and this was a packaging mistake from the manufacture. They said to keep the box I received and they would send a box of purple immediately. I received the box of 25bulbs 2 business days latter. Since it Christmas this was important to me. Thanks!!"

I was so pleased to find a company that carried the replacement bulbs for my very old Christmas tree as they are not available in any stores. I was even more excited when they included a catalog of their replacement bulbs and wires. I have an outdoor light- up Christmas train that I may be able to order replacement LED bulbs and wires for and that will make my family very happy. the service and prices are great."

The lights are great, the teal color is absolutely teal. This is my second order for these lights. Both orders I selected the least expensive shipping option. Both orders I recieved a pretty quick response that my order had shipped. However, both orders arrived a day or two after the shipping timeframe I selected. Lights are great-shipping takes a bit longer then expected even if they tell you its on its way."

"Order arrived with one broken bulb and I had ordered the wrong size bulb base. I called and had a very patient man help me sort out what I needed and waived shipping on a new order-so thank you very much."

Very satisfied with the quality of the LED C7 lights and strings. But though the website states "All Orders Placed Before 1pm MST Ship The Same Day," that wasn't the case. I was also told by a customer svce. rep that if I placed the order on 12/2, it would arrive that week (i.e., by 12/6). I placed the order at 8:39 AM on 12/2, but the order was not processed until 12/3 5:16 P.M. and arrived the following week (12/9). OK, that's only one business day, but still disappointing."

I had been looking for these ceramic lights for a very long time. I purchased the lights in the color blue, they were just as I remembered. Very bright and eye catching. My order was delivered in a very timely manner and I am very excited to say that I am very happy with my purchase. The lights were very easy to install and the bulbs were packaged in individual compartments so none of the bulbs were broken. I ordered extra bulbs just in case, however have not needed to replace any. Will save them for next year if needed."

The good: they were shipped quickly. Only three were broken in transit. Only two had no fluid in them - the rest worked. When I called the company, before shipping, you were easily reached.

The bad: on a scale of one to ten, ten being heavy duty, they are a one. Supreme care has to be taken to insure that they do not touch each other or any other object or they will break. Though I tested every box, I did not remove the lights from the inner wrapping on 11 boxes. On the one that I unwrapped two lights were broken and the fluid came out of them. I am extremely worried that I may not get them up without severe damage. I'm definitely going to have a plan and have two others helping to get these up, and then, after reading the instruction sheet, I'm totally freaked out about how long they will last. There are so many concerns about usage that my experience and fun of anticipation is virtually diminished.

The Ugly: I asked for some tips in getting the light up and around the basement - not on a tree. none were forthcoming and I can see why, now. I have no idea how to wrap them around the corners of our lower level(basement.) There is a fear of nails, staples, too much usage, not leaving them up year round, etc., etc., and I haven,t mentioned the fact that my wife went "nuts" when there were only two colors. If I can figure a way to string them up and get them all to point straight up, I'm going to damage many of them in the process. Too fragile! Totally frustrated & disappointed! 12 strands of bubble lights, $142.24 w/shipping. credit card pmt. HELP!!!!"

The lights arrived in great shape in just a matter of days with no extra paid for the quick shipping. The ones I used blinked as advertised. What more could you ask for than to be able to buy online what you couldn't as the store, at an inexpensive price and get the package at your front door?"

"If you are looking for lighting, this is the place to go. I searched several different websites and Novelty Lights was by far the easiest to maneuver and most complete. The product information allows you to make the right choice for your lighting needs. My order shipped promptly with a catalog that I am keeping for future reference."

Thank you for the great shopping experience.

Novelty Lights had exactly what we were looking for. The site was easy to navigate. The order was processed quickly and was received in less than a week. The packaging seemed to be a bit overkill. But it contained lights and none were broken. Time to finish the tree!"

"We first ordered from Novelty Lights last year and were please by the product and easy of order. This year, we simply needed to replace some of the broken stakes that we use to line our sidewalks with C9 light strings. I agreed to pay an extra dollar and change to hurry up the delivery but I was very much surprised to see the package come in days before I expected it. Thank you for the speedy service."

I received this inquiry to respond to my experience before I received the product. I have been watching the shipment on UPS tracking and it has been in Louisville, KY for several days. It seems strange that they (UPS) will not just get it out as it got to Louisville virtually overnight from when it was shipped from your warehouse. I checked on it a couple of times a day and when last checked a little while ago it is still stuck and not moving. The max delivery day is for Dec. 3. I don't see this happening unless they send it by jet in the next few hours. (New entry)--- NoveltyLights.com was not responsible for this issue. They have been great working with me trying to run the things down. When they arrived a couple were not functioning properly. They got replacements out ASAP. I give 2 stars for UPS. 5 stars for NoveltyLights.com especially Kellyan. Thanks again!"

All bulbs arrived as promised, without breakage, and fit perfectly into our older strings.

I am grateful that Novelty Lights carries these hard-to-find bulbs. I dreaded the thought of recycling the strings when only extra bulbs were needed.

I'm sure to patronize NL for my next set. "

"This is the second purchase I made from Novelty lights. I can't say anything bad about the experience. Ordering online was easy, they left me know when the order shipped and the order arrived like 2 or 3 days after it shipped. Very good experience. I will use them again. The items are exactly as described on the web site. I'm very happy with the purchases I made."

"I was very impressed with the great customer service provided by a young man by the name of chase-?(if I remember correctly). I called the toll free number to question on availability of c7 globe christmas replacement bulbs. The website said that they were currently unavailable. He went out of his way to check on a recent arrival of a new load that had just come into their warehouse. He returned to inform me that he did have some and would upload them onto the website so that I could purchase them. I did purchase them soon after I had finished talking to him. Thanks for the great service- novelty lights."

I found my light bulbs, c-9 Christmas, packed in cases of all 5 original colors as I remembered them when I was a child for a GREAT price. I ordered 5 boxes. They were packaged great and arrived very quickly, 3 days, and in excellent condition. I will buy from again when the time comes! Thank You for making my Christmas a MERRY CHRISTMAS!!!!!!

they offer a product/quantity that I could not find anywhere else, but they were cheaper per unit than places that offered the product in larger quantities . And even though the product description clearly stated that screws did not come as part of the package, they still included two separate bags of screws. Very well done, in my opinion."

I'm very pleased with Novelty lights. I get what I order in a timely manner most of the time in 4 days or less. I have been hanging Christmas lights for 13 years and Novelty lights has been where I get 99% of my supplies for the past 5 or 6 years for the 100 plus house I install each year. David"

Received the string lights I ordered very quickly at a great price. I wonder if I can get the G30 bulbs locally and if the lights can handle the weather because I intend to leave them up?"

I bought G40 frosted replacement bulbs to replenish the supply my brother had. They came quickly, were the correct size (thanks to the great pictures and measurements posted on the website) and my brother was thrilled to get them. We had borrowed his strands of lights for my daughter's wedding reception. Several bulbs were broken and I wanted to replace them. THANK YOU NOVELTY LIGHTS! great product and customer service. "

"The lights were marketed as BLACKLIGHTS (inferring the kind of blacklights from the late '60's and '70's that were used to make neon poster colors and white show up extra bright). They were actually BLACK light bulbs that had reddish PINK filament when plugged in. I can not use these for Halloween or any other purpose. Now I'm supposed to fill out paperwork to get APPROVAL before I can PAY to have them shipped back to the company??? Shame on them!"

"I'm a happy gal! I love to outline my front door with C9 multi on a timer all night. For years the only replacement colors offered locally in stores were red blue green. This season thanks to Novelty my replacements include yellow orange white!! My order arrived as estimated. Each box of 25 was shock absorb protected and packaged securely. Well done, much appreciated!!"

"Tried all over the website to find the light sets and bulbs that I finally found at Novelty Lights, Inc. Your online order procedure was simple to do because your online catalogue was easy to navigate.

Your online reply concerning receipt of order, shipping information, etc. was much appreciated and accurate! The order was received as promised and well packaged!

Thanks again for having a great product and heads up customer care.

"This was my second order with Novelty Lights. Both my first and second order arrived on time and the items were packaged excellently. I received what I ordered and everything is working as expected. Concerning my first order the exterior colored film on the G50 bulbs started peeling off after about 6 months, I called Novelty about this and without hesitation they sent me new G50 bulbs at no charge including paying for the shipping. They explained that the newer bulbs had the coloring on the interior of the bulb instead of the exterior. This is what I call GREAT service. I will continue to buy from Novelty Lights for any lighting needs at our store. "

"We first ordered from Novelty Lights last year and were please by the product and easy of order. This year, we simply needed to replace some of the broken stakes that we use to line our sidewalks with C9 light strings. I agreed to pay an extra dollar and change to hurry up the delivery but I was very much surprised to see the package come in days before I expected it. Thank you for the speedy service."

"I received this inquiry to respond to my experience before I received the product. I have been watching the shipment on UPS tracking and it has been in Louisville, KY for several days. It seems strange that they (UPS) will not just get it out as it got to Louisville virtually overnight from when it was shipped from your warehouse. I checked on it a couple of times a day and when last checked a little while ago it is still stuck and not moving. The max delivery day is for Dec. 3. I don't see this happening unless they send it by jet in the next few hours. (New entry)--- NoveltyLights.com was not responsible for this issue. They have been great working with me trying to run the things down. When they arrived a couple were not functioning properly. They got replacements out ASAP. I give 2 stars for UPS. 5 stars for NoveltyLights.com especially Kellyan. Thanks again!"

"There web site advertises shipments will be done the same day if processed before 1pm (their time). My order was shipped almost a week later. I could have gotten my material cheaper elsewhere, but chose Novelty Lights for the quick shipping. AFTER I emailed them and asked for status they ended up shipping them next day air, but I have not seen the package yet. An apology/excuse was given (by Michael the Office Sales Manager), but no additional effort was made to make the wrong right. I am very frustrated with this outfit and will probably return the order once I finally receive it."
