REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION DENIED

ISSUE/MAILING DATE: 8/24/2016

The trademark examining attorney has carefully reviewed applicant's request for reconsideration and is denying the request for the reasons stated below. See 37 C.F.R. §2.63(b)(3); TMEP §§715.03(a)(ii)(B), 715.04(a). The Section 2(d) refusal made final in the Office action dated February 4, 2016 is maintained and continue to be FINAL. See TMEP §§715.03(a)(ii)(B), 715.04(a).

In the present case, applicant's request has not resolved the outstanding issue, nor does it raise a new issue or provide any new or compelling evidence with regard to the outstanding issue in the final Office action. In addition, applicant's analysis and arguments are not persuasive nor do they shed new light on the issues.

In the applicant's response, the applicant asserted that because the registrant asserted in its Request for Reconsideration dated January 6, 2012 that there is no association between BOYLSTON Street and the registrant's services, that the commercial impression of the applied-for mark and the registered mark are therefore different. However, the commercial impression of the term BOYLSTON in both the applied-for mark and registered mark is identical. Specifically, the impression that the term BOYLSTON creates in both the applied-for mark and the registered mark is that of BOYLSTON Street in Boston, Massachusetts. See evidence at https://www.tripadvisor.com/AttractionsNear-g60745-d108920-Boylston\_Street-Boston\_Massachusetts.html (listing the top 10 things to do on BOYLSTON street), https://www.tripadvisor.com/Attraction\_Review-g60745-d108920-Reviews-Boylston\_Street-Boston\_Massachusetts.html (identifying BOYLSTON street as a famous point of interest), <https://www.bostonglobe.com/magazine/2013/06/15/delicious-restaurant-stops-boylston-street-dining-crawl/vbUaXf2xQhoHsmLXLjzt9K/story.html> (listing where to eat on BOYLSTON street), https://www.yelp.com/search?find\_desc=Shops+On+Boylston+St&find\_loc=Boston%2C+MA (listing the best places to shop on BOYLSTON street), and <http://www.masshist.org/features/online/photographs/1154> (indicating homes on BOYLSTON street is the home to the Massachusetts Historical Society); see also evidence included in the examining attorney's previous Office actions. Because the wording BOYLSTON is spelled and pronounced the same way in both marks, the commercial impression that is created by the word BOYLSTON in the applicant's and registrant's mark is exactly the same as well.

The applicant asserted that the applicant's mark should not be found confusing with the U.S. Registration No. 4165982 because U.S. Registration No. 4827894 was allowed to register over the current cited registration. However, third-party registrations are entitled to little weight on the question of likelihood of confusion because they are "not evidence that the registered marks are actually in use or that the public is familiar with them." In re Midwest Gaming & Entm't LLC, 106 USPQ2d 1163, 1167 n.5 (TTAB 2013) (citing In re Mighty Leaf Tea, 601 F.3d 1342, 1346, 94 USPQ2d 1257, 1259 (Fed. Cir. 2010)); see TMEP §1207.01(d)(iii). Moreover, the existence on the register of other seemingly similar marks does not provide a basis for registrability for the applied-for mark. AMF Inc. v. Am. Leisure Prods., Inc., 474 F.2d 1403, 1406, 177 USPQ 268, 269 (C.C.P.A. 1973); In re Total Quality Group, Inc., 51 USPQ2d 1474, 1477 (TTAB 1999).

Additionally, prior decisions and actions of other trademark examining attorneys in registering other marks have little evidentiary value and are not binding upon the USPTO or the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board. TMEP §1207.01(d)(vi); see In re Midwest Gaming & Entm't LLC, 106 USPQ2d 1163, 1165 n.3 (TTAB 2013) (citing In re Nett Designs, Inc., 236 F.3d 1339, 1342, 57 USPQ2d 1564, 1566 (Fed. Cir. 2001)). Each case is decided on its own facts, and each mark stands on its own merits. See AMF Inc. v. Am. Leisure Prods., Inc., 474 F.2d 1403, 1406, 177 USPQ 268, 269 (C.C.P.A. 1973); In re Binion, 93 USPQ2d 1531, 1536 (TTAB 2009).

The applicant has argued that even though the first word in the applied-for mark and registered mark are the same, that the marks do not appear the same or their location would not be the same. While the registrant's mark does contain the wording TRADING CO. after the wording BOYLSTON, the wording TRADING CO. is less significant as it is generic for the registrant's services. Disclaimed matter that is descriptive of or generic for a party's services is typically less significant or less dominant when comparing marks. See In re Dixie Rests., Inc., 105 F.3d 1405, 1407, 41 USPQ2d 1531, 1533-34 (Fed. Cir. 1997); In re Nat'l Data Corp., 753 F.2d at 1060, 224 USPQ at 752; TMEP §1207.01(b)(viii), (c)(ii).

In the applicant's response, the applicant argued that TRADING CO is not usually descriptive of a clothing store or brand. However, consumers are very accustomed to seeing both retail store services and clothing brands include the wording TRADING CO. in the name of the retail store services and the name of a clothing brand. See third party evidence at <http://seaislandtrading.com/product-category/clothing/all-clothes/> (providing clothing and retail store services under the SEA ISLAND TRADING CO. mark), <http://www.rbtradingcompany.com/shop/apparel/mens.html> (providing clothing and online retail store services under the ROSEMARY BEACH TRADING COMPANY mark), <http://www.coloradoclothing.com/about-us> (offering clothing and retail store services under the COLORADO TRADING AND CLOTHING COMPANY mark), <http://www.highseastrading.com/> (offering clothing and retail store services under the HIGH SEAS TRADING CO. mark), http://www.duluthtrading.com/store/MN\_Home\_NewSum16-B-mens-home.aspx (offering clothing and retail store services under the DULUTH TRADING CO. mark), <http://www.earthboundtrading.com/women/clothing> (offering clothing and retail store services under the EARTHBOUND TRADING CO mark), <http://www.outbacktrading.com/> (offering retail and clothing services under the OUTBACK TRADING COMPANY mark), <https://www.riversendtrading.com/Brands/Rivers-End/> (offering clothing and online retail store services under the RIVER'S END TRADING COMPANY mark), and <https://buffalojackson.com/> (offering clothing and online retail store services under the BUFFALO JACKSON TRADING CO mark).

Moreover, the examining attorney has attached a number of third party registrations in which not only were clothing goods identified as the goods offered by the registrants, but the wording "TRADING CO" was disclaimed from the registered mark. Third-party registrations featuring goods and services the same as or similar to applicant's goods and services are probative evidence on the issue of descriptiveness where the relevant word or term is disclaimed, registered under Trademark Act Section 2(f) based on acquired distinctiveness, or registered on the Supplemental Register. See Inst. Nat'l des Appellations D'Origine v. Vintners Int'l Co., 958 F.2d 1574, 1581-82, 22 USPQ2d 1190, 1196 (Fed. Cir. 1992); In re Box Solutions Corp., 79 USPQ2d 1953, 1955 (TTAB 2006); In re Finisar Corp., 78 USPQ2d 1618, 1621 (TTAB 2006).

See Third Party Registration Nos.: 1447619, 2216631, 2767095, 3025609, 2549907, 3190547, 3463213, 3866723, 3544988, 3185001, 3548307, 4722562, 4784888, 4965955, and 5020742.

Therefore, the evidence shows that consumers are very accustomed to seeing the wording TRADING CO. used to identify the source of clothing, and not just the source of online retail store services.

The applicant also argued that there is no evidence of actual confusion that will occur, arguing that the examining attorney has not included evidence of consumers being confused through searches online for the applicant or registrant. However, the test under Trademark Act Section 2(d) is whether there is a likelihood of confusion. It is not necessary to show actual confusion to establish a likelihood of confusion. Herbko Int'l, Inc. v. Kappa Books, Inc., 308 F.3d 1156, 1165, 64 USPQ2d 1375, 1380 (Fed. Cir. 2002) (citing Giant Food, Inc. v. Nation's Foodservice, Inc., 710 F.2d 1565, 1571, 218 USPQ 390, 396 (Fed. Cir. 1983)); TMEP §1207.01(d)(ii). The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board stated as follows:

[A]pplicant's assertion that it is unaware of any actual confusion occurring as a result of the contemporaneous use of the marks of applicant and registrant is of little probative value in an ex parte proceeding such as this where we have no evidence pertaining to the nature and extent of the use by applicant and registrant (and thus cannot ascertain whether there has been ample opportunity for confusion to arise, if it were going to); and the registrant has no chance to be heard from (at least in the absence of a consent agreement, which applicant has not submitted in this case).

The applicant has asserted that he has provided evidence, including a number of web domains using the wording BOYLSTON, all of which direct back to the applicant's website. However, none of the websites mentioned by the applicant show the wording BOYLSTON or use the wording BOYLSTON to identify the source of the applicant's goods. See applicant website at <http://youngboston.com/>. Moreover, the evidence submitted by the applicant in his June 8, 2015 response shows the applicant offering his goods under the mark HAGGERTY and not the applied-for mark, BOYLSTON. See June 8, 2015 Response to Office Action pages 38 – 41. The only evidence submitted by the applicant showing use of the wording BOYLSTON was submitted in applicant's January 15, 2016 response in which the applicant submitted the image of a shirt with the wording BOYLSTON on the front. See January 15, 2016 Response to Office Action page 8. It is also noted that the shirt cannot currently be found on the applicant's website. See www.haggertyne.com/shop/boylston-mens-asphalt and <http://youngboston.com/shop/>. So while the applicant asserts that all necessary steps have been taken to differentiate the applicant from the registrant, the opportunity for confusion is not diminished. It is not clear from the evidence provided by the applicant that the opportunity for confusion between the applied-for mark of the applicant and the mark of the registrant has been ample.

Accordingly, the request is denied.

If applicant has already filed a timely notice of appeal with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the Board will be notified to resume the appeal. See TMEP §715.04(a).

If no appeal has been filed and time remains in the six-month response period to the final Office action, applicant has the remainder of the response period to (1) comply with and/or overcome any outstanding final refusal, and/or (2) file a notice of appeal to the Board. TMEP §715.03(a)(ii)(B); see 37 C.F.R. §2.63(b)(1)-(3). The filing of a request for reconsideration does not stay or extend the time for filing an appeal. 37 C.F.R. §2.63(b)(3); see TMEP §§715.03, 715.03(a)(ii)(B), (c).

"A Nice Place"
There are very nice shops and restaurants. You can find everything from expensive jewelry stores to Marshalls and Barnes and Nobles. Stop by the library or some of the beautiful churches along the way.

"Great sights"
This area is packed with restaurants, and shopping so if you are looking for this type of fun make this a stop on your tour for sure. Beautiful buildings are everywhere.

"Spot On"
Really great place for shopping & restaurant! Safe & clean area, so nice to stroll after dark, but avoid some street crime as well. All types of shopping and tons of different restaurants to choose shops to eat.

"Place to be in Boston"
Thank you!

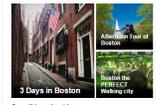

"Many shops and restaurants"
Went to have dinner at Abe and Louie's and walked at over Boston St at night. We saw many people walking around. The amount of restaurants and shops provided for people with $100 is well.

"If you like to shop..."
A must be if you like to shop. Spent some time there remembering the victims of the Boston Harbor attacks. Boston Strong!

Where to eat on Boylston Street

The Globe's restaurant critic offers an excursion along a street deserving of support.

By Devra First | GLOBE STAFF | JUNE 16, 2013

ON APRIL 15, shortly before 3 p.m., two bombs went off near the finish line of the Boston Marathon and changed Boylston Street forever. The explosions shut the area down for days, with businesses losing revenue and employees their wages and tips. The city pulled together. Hotels and restaurants cared for the investigating officials. Donations of time, money, and food poured in.

Now, walking down Boylston, the street seems different. Handmade signs and hanging running shoes remind us of those injured and killed. But every open business is a testament to the city's capacity for endurance and recovery. There has never been a better time to head to the area to share a meal. What could be more life-affirming than good food, good friends, and maybe a little wine?

Back Bay doesn't have the reputation as a dining destination in the way that, say, the nearby South End does. But there is plenty to capture one's interest up and down Boylston and the side streets that run off it, from native seafood to far-flung cuisines. There is vibrant food culture to be found in the fantastic Copley Square farmers' market, held Tuesdays and Fridays throughout the season. Food trucks offer everything from tacos to chicken and rice to gourmet grilled cheese. And there are the many restaurants and bars that were closed or affected by the bombings. (One, Forum, is still out of commission. It will reopen this summer, renovated and with a new chef, Matthew Barros, who has worked at Market and Myers + Chang.)

There are so many, in fact, it would be hard to visit them all. A Boylston Street excursion lets you sample a variety of the area's offerings and celebrate and support its businesses. Begin at the end of the street closest to Massachusetts Avenue and work your way to the Public Garden. Shall we?

A photographic history of the home of the Massachusetts Historical Society, by Megan K. Friedel, MHS Photograph Cataloger

Introduction

The Massachusetts Historical Society's current home at 1154 Boylston Street opened its doors in March of 1899. The new building -- the seventh location of the Society since its founding in 1791 -- was designed by Edmund March Wheelwright, then the city architect of Boston. It was, by most accounts, an appropriate and dignified building for, as Society president Charles Francis Adams put it, the "serious character" of preserving local and national history. The Boston Herald also predicted that the Boylston Street building "will be known as one of the surest storage batteries of historic knowledge in the city."

Over a century later, 1154 Boylston Street continues to welcome researchers and visitors to the Massachusetts Historical Society. Additions to the building have accommodated the Society's growing staff, activities, and collections. Most significantly, during the last eight years, the Society has been engaged in a long-term project to renovate or replace nearly everything in the building. In June, the final phase of construction was completed. These photographs depict some of the renovations and changes made to 1154 Boylston Street from 1899 to the present.

The Massachusetts Historical Society invites you to join us in celebrating our "new" building. The Society is open to the public Mon., Tues., Weds., and Fri. from 9:00am - 4:45pm and on Thurs. from 9:00am - 6pm.

Comfortably living the Colorado lifestyle.

About Us

Welcome to Colorado Trading & Clothing Company, a company inspired by active lifestyles and the beauty of the outdoors. Founded as a wholesale manufacturer and distributor for lifestyle apparel, we've continued to expand our product line and create revolutionary fabrics that allow our products to bring unsurpassed comfort and softness to those who wear them.

Colorado has one of the most unique and varied natural landscapes in the entire nation, so you don't have to be an extreme outdoors enthusiast to feel the Colorado allure.

The old and the new, the rustic and the sophisticated, the wild and the refined-all of these experiences exist practically side by side in Colorado. The people of Colorado appreciate quality, simplicity and the idea of living comfortably.

It's clothing for the rest of us-not just extreme adventurers.

Wearing the Colorado Clothing Brand, you've joined a group that appreciates the Colorado lifestyle.
