REMARKS / ARGUMENTS

The Applicant makes the following remarks regarding individual issues:

Identification and Classification of Services

AMENDMENT OF DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

Applicant wishes to amend the services covered will as follows:

From:

“Computerized on-line retail store services in the field of firearms, firearm accessories, and tools related to firearms and firearm accessories

To:

“Online retail store selling firearms, firearm parts, tools, replacement parts, and aftermarket parts, including barrels, drills, magazines, guides, and sleeves.”

SECTION 2(d) REFUSAL – LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION

In the Office Action the Examining Attorney refused registration of the applied-for mark because of a likelihood of confusion with the mark in U.S. Registration No. 2091808 “TACTICAL.” The Applicant respectfully requests reconsideration of this refusal.

ARGUMENT 1 – AMENDED DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES REMOVES LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION

The Applicant has amended the description of services such that it no can be considered longer covers selling of “cartridges.” The description of goods for Registration No. 2091808 “TACTICAL” is “shot shell, pistol and centerfire rifle cartridges.” This removes the similarity of goods or services between the instant application for “J&S TACTICAL” and Registration No. 2091808 “TACTICAL.”

ARGUMENT 2 – “TACTICAL” IS A DESCRIPTIVE, WEAK MARK WITHOUT A WIDE SCOPE OF EXCLUSION

The Applicant asserts that Registration No. 2091808 “TACTICAL” is a descriptive and weak mark and does not entitle the owners to exclude others from a wide scope around the mark. “TACTICAL” is diluted and descriptive in the field of weapons, including firearms and ammunition.

The Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit has held that: “Marks that are descriptive or highly suggestive are entitled to a narrower scope of protection, i.e., are less likely to generate confusion over source identification, than their more fanciful counterparts. See, e.g., Nat'l Data Corp. v. Computer Sys. Eng'g, Inc., 940 F.2d 676, 1991 WL 124920 at *2 (Fed.Cir.1991) (unpublished); Drackett Co. v. H. Kohnstamm & Co., 56 C.C.P.A. 852, 404 F.2d 1399, 1400 (1969) (“The scope of protection afforded such highly suggestive marks is necessarily narrow and confusion is not likely to result from the use of two marks carrying the same suggestion as to the use of closely similar goods.”). Juice Generation, Inc. v. GS Enterprises LLC, 794 F.3d 1334, 1339 (Fed. Cir. 2015). “Third party registrations are relevant to prove that some segment of the composite marks which both contesting parties use has a normally understood and well-recognized descriptive or suggestive meaning, leading to the conclusion that that segment is relatively weak.” Id.; see Tektronix, Inc. v. Daktronics, Inc., 534 F.2d 915, 917 (CCPA 1976). Id.

Since Registration No. 2091808 “TACTICAL” was registered, there are at least 461 other live marks that have registered that contain “TACTICAL” and at least 21 with a description of G&S that includes "on-line retail store services" and "firearm." (See Attachments 1 and 2). Several appear to be no more than a house mark added to the mark “TACTICAL.” See E.g., Registration No. 4604598 “MILCOR TACTICAL” and Registration No. 4873948 “SPIKE'S TACTICAL.” These 461 live registrations since the registration of 2091808 “TACTICAL” are strong evidence that “TACTICAL” is descriptive and weak. The 21 registrations since the registration of 2091808 “TACTICAL” with descriptions of G&S that includes "on-line retail store services" and "firearm" are strong evidence that the addition of a house mark to “TACTICAL” eliminates any likelihood of confusion.

CONCLUSION

In view of the foregoing, Applicants respectfully request that the Examining Attorney permit the application to proceed toward registration. The Examining Attorney is encouraged to telephone the undersigned at (360) 750-9931 if it appears that an interview would be helpful in advancing the case.

Respectfully submitted,

/Philip R.M. Hunt/
