v.

TECHNIFOCUS, LLC

David Mermelstein, Attorney:

Now before the Board is petitioner's consent motion for a one-week extension in the briefing schedule in this case. Petitioner's motion is GRANTED, and dates are reset accordingly.¹

.oOo.

¹ Petitioner's motion did not include a statement of the grounds for the motion, other than a recitation of registrant's consent. Normally, mere consent is not enough to establish good cause for an extension. However, because the extension requested is short, the Board will not require further explanation. However, any future extension requests should include an explanation of the reasons therefor.
