MOTION FOR SUSPENSION OF PROCEEDINGS

The parties move for a continued suspension of the proceedings in this matter for three additional months until 7 February 2003, including the requirement that Applicant file an answer to Opposer's Notice of Opposition.

Negotiations are concluding in Europe regarding a world wide settlement proposal. A tentative settlement has been reached between the parties. However, the formal settlement agreement has yet to be signed by both parties. The additional three month suspension of all proceedings is needed in order to reduce the settlement agreement to a writing signed by both
