OPPOSERS' MOTION UPON CONSENT FOR SUSPENSION

Opposers, Hearst Communications, Inc. and Hearst Magazines Property, Inc., respectfully move the Board for a six-month suspension of these proceedings.

As grounds for this motion, Opposers state that, although they properly submitted the attached change of counsel form on July 22, 2004, the Board's June 11, 2005 scheduling order was addressed to former counsel and did not reach Opposers' current counsel until the morning of July 14, 2005, four days before the scheduled close of Opposers' testimony period. Opposers also have been advised by counsel for Applicant, Robert M. Steckman, that Applicant will be on an extended business trip until November and is likely to be unavailable before that time. Finally, Opposers state that Mr. Steckman extended his consent to this motion in a telephone conference on July 14, 2005.

For these reasons, Opposers move the Board for a six-month suspension of this proceeding and, upon the expiration of that period, for an order resetting the parties' testimony periods.

Respectfully submitted,
