v.

LIQUIDGOLF.COM CORPORATION

Elizabeth A. Dunn, Attorney:

On April 24, 2003, the Board granted applicant's consented motion to suspend proceedings pending settlement discussions between the parties.

On May 1, 2003, opposer's copy of the Board's order was returned as undeliverable. It is the responsibility of a party to a proceeding before the Board to ensure that the Board has the party's current correspondence address. If a party fails to notify the Board of a change of address, with the result that the Board is unable to serve correspondence on the party, default judgment may be entered against the party. See Trademark Trial and Appeal Board Manual of Procedure (TBMP) §117.07.

In view of the above, opposer is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why the Board should not treat its failure to maintain a current address with the Board as a concession of the case, failing which a judgment dismissing the notice of opposition with prejudice will be entered against opposer.
