JOINT MOTION TO SUSPEND PROCEEDINGS FOR TWO MONTHS

The opposer and applicant jointly move that the Board enter an order suspending the above-referenced opposition for a period of two months. The parties stipulate and agree that good cause exists as the parties are discussing and contemplating a perspective resolution or settlement of the matter. The parties submit that a suspension will help minimize their attorneys' fees and minimize the time imposition on the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board and its personnel.

At such time as the action is removed from suspension, if it is not dismissed, a new discovery and trial period schedule will be proposed by the Applicant and the Opposer.

Dated this 6th day of June, 2002.
