TRADEMARK TRIAL AND
APPEAL BOARD
02 APR 23 PM 9:22

CONSENT MOTION FOR AN EXTENSION
OF TIME FOR APPLICANT'S RESPONSE TO ALL
OUTSTANDING DISCOVERY REQUESTS INCLUDING
OPPOSER'S FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES AND FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Applicant respectfully moves for a sixty (60) day extension of time to respond to all outstanding discovery requests, including Opposer's First Set of Interrogatories and First Request for Production of Documents served November 5, 2001.

This motion is requested to allow additional time for the Board to rule on the undersigned's Motion to Withdraw as Attorney of Record filed November 2, 2001. This request is also designed to allow the Applicant additional time to secure substitute counsel.

The Opposer's counsel has consented to a thirty (30) day extension. As it appears unlikely that the Board will rule on the undersigned's Motion to Withdraw as Attorney of Record in the next thirty days, the Applicant submits that a sixty day extension would be more appropriate. Further, such an extension would not result in any undue prejudice to the Opposer, nor would it result in a significant delay in the present proceedings.

Accordingly, Applicant respectfully requests that the Applicant's Motion for Extension of Time to respond to all outstanding discovery requests, including Opposer's First Set of Interrogatories and First Request for Production of Documents be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
