APPLICANTS RESPONSE TO OPPOSER'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGEMENT ON THE ISSUE OF APPLICANT'S BONA FIDE INTENT TO USE, AND SUSPENSION PENDING DISPOSITION OF SUMMARY JUDGMENT

The Applicant ("Steve Emeny"), in this response will establish that there is a bona fide intent to pursue the trademark IDEAS INSIDE. The Applicant also moves for summary judgment against the Opposition, Intel Corporation, on the grounds that it is using false information against the Applicant.

The Applicant also requests that the Board deny any request for the resetting of dates in this Opposition.

BACKGROUND

The mark IDEAS INSIDE was filed on November 5, 1999 to secure ownership of a name that is unique and extremely powerful in light of the idea economy. It was examined and passed through to the final stage by the USPTO where it was published for opposition on April, 24, 2001. On May 25, 2001 Intel started its initial proceedings to Oppose the mark

IDEAS INSIDE - 75/825/218.

The fact of the matter is that INTEL is a large multinational Corporation with a team of lawyers to represent them. It was evident at that time that should a business be launched using the term IDEAS INSIDE there would be an immediate law suit filed by Intel. Therefore logic dictated that the Applicant ("Steve Emeny"), a relatively small business by comparison should cease any further operations with regard to the Mark IDEAS INSIDE. The goal was to actively seek validation in a court of law and secure ownership before launching the business.

THE PARTIES

1. Applicant ("Steven Emeny")

The Applicant ("Steve Emeny"), is an entrepreneur and has invested several years conceiving of and developing business ideas for the 21st century. The marks that were filed are diverse, fresh and innovative, clearly geared towards the world wide web and the idea economy: IDEAS INSIDE , MULTIMEDIA POCKET, WHEN YOU'RE GOING PLACES!, INTERNET SURF SUIT, BYTE SIZE CLOTHING, INTERNET SURFWEAR, CYBERSPACE ESSENTIALS, see attached Exhibit 1.

During the year 2003 the Applicant ("Steve Emeny") successfully registered 3 trademarks in Canada, INTERNET SURFWEAR TMA579551, SI Design TMA591723, and WHEN YOU'RE GOING PLACES! TMA579040 , attached as Exhibit 2. A clear sign that there is a bona fide attempt to follow through on filed Trademarks.

The Applicant is an entrepreneur, a person who thinks outside the box in an attempt to develop new products and services. These new products and services, if successful, add a new dimension to the economy by helping the economy to grow.

The entrepreneur is not always initially successful and it may take longer to see his/her vision come to fruition. His/Her vision may be much grander at the outset than it's eventual implementation. They may have many failures on the way to success but it is the spirit of the entrepreneur that is important. It must be supported so that the future of business continues to grow and prosper, and as a result society will grow and prosper. To provide no support is to remove hope and if hope is removed then the economy is doomed to wither and die. It is important to allow the entrepreneur to fulfill his vision for new products and services and not to impede his progress via unjustified legal proceedings and technicalities.

The evolution or growth of a business often encounters unforeseen occurrences which delay or impede the development and launch of the business. It is true that visions do not always unfold as planned and as a result the launch of the business can be delayed, as in this case, by several years.

2. Intel Corporation

Founded in 1968, Intel is the world's leading developer and manufacturer of microprocessors. Intel Corporation does not sell microprocessors through the Intel web site to average consumers but to resellers for installation in technical devices such as computers and cell phones, to name a few.

Intel is a large company that has filed many trademarks. Many of those filed have been abandoned and as a result were not followed through to registration. See exhibit 3 attached.

Intel has, via it's attorneys, since may 25, 2001 opposed the Applicant ("Steve Emeny").

The opposition has been going on close to 4 years. Intel has opposed on infringement and dilution. It now opposes on a lack of bona fide intent. It seems logical that all grounds for opposition could have been presented at once. Intel appears to be delaying the opposition process and prolonging a ruling in this matter. In addition, Intel has stated in it's motion for summary judgment – dated Jan 04, 2005, under THE PARTIES – II. Mr. Steven Emeny, that the Applicant has had no filed Trademarks mature into registration. This is not the case as seen in exhibit 2 attached where 3 Canadian trademarks, INTERNET SURFWEAR, SI Design and WHEN YOU'RE GOING PLACES!, have all been registered. They were registered in 2003, over a year ago. Intel is relying on false information to support it's opposition.

RESPONSE TO APPLICANT LACKS A BONA FIDE INTENT TO USE THE MARK IDEAS INSIDE

Section 1(b) of the Lanham Act Requires a Bona Fide Intent to Use.

The Applicant, ("Steve Emeny") , clearly has a bona fide attempt to use the Mark IDEAS INSIDE. The following are real life facts which demonstrate good faith regarding the Mark IDEAS INSIDE.

- a) The Applicant is an entrepreneur with forward looking ideas as evidenced by the diverse and innovative nature of the Trademarks that have been filed. The time, effort and cost of creating the trademark, filing the trademark and supporting it's defense against the opposition display a bona fide attempt to use the mark in commerce.
- b) The Applicant logically ceased operations of the Mark IDEAS INSIDE and sought to use the courts to resolve this opposition before proceeding thus preventing any further legal battles.

- c) The Applicant filed the trademark IDEAS INSIDE and has actively engaged in the defense of the IDEAS INSIDE Mark during the Opposition by Intel.
- d) The Applicant has successfully registered 3 trademarks in Canada, see Exhibit 2. This fact demonstrates a firm intention to follow through on Trademarks.
- e) The Applicant has registered domain names that support the mark IDEAS INSIDE.

CONCLUSION

The Applicant, (“Steve Emeny”), has demonstrated that the process has not been abused and that his intentions are true, and therefore bona fide. He has demonstrated the normal cycle of applying for a trademark as evidenced by the 3 Trademarks registered in Canada. There has been no attempt to file ‘desirable Marks’ as all the Marks filed are original. There has been no attempt to stockpile trademarks as there is only one live trademark in the United States.

Additionally Intel has stated that there were no registered trademarks completed by the Applicant when clearly there were three on record 14 months prior to the filing of Intel’s filing for Summary Judgment – dated Jan. 04, 2005. In light of the use of false information the Applicant respectfully requests a Summary Judgment against the Opposition, Intel Corporation and in favor of the Applicant (“Steven Emeny”).

REQUEST TO DENY THE RESETTING OF TRIAL DATES

In the event that the Applicant’s request to rule against Intel is denied, the Applicant respectfully requests the Board refuse any resetting of trial dates as Opposer, Intel Corporation, has had close to four years time to defend the Opposition.

Respectfully submitted,

STEVEN EMENY
