OPPOSER'S REPLY TO OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO COMPEL AND REQUEST FOR TELEPHONIC CONFERENCE

NOW COMES the Opposer in reply to Applicant's opposition to Opposer's motion to compel and request for telephonic conference, and states as follows:

The Opposer objects and is unable to participate in a telephonic conference due to the recent passing of Leo Stoller's mother, and is involved in after death matters, which preclude the representative of the Opposer participating in a telephonic conference. Nonetheless, the Opposer asserts that the Applicant's objection to producing the duly notified witnesses is without merit and contributes to the unnecessary delay of this proceeding.

Opposer's motion to compel acts to suspend the proceeding pending resolution of the said motion. Thus, the telephonic conference is not necessary because Opposer's discovery depositions are not going forward as scheduled because the Applicant is refusing to produce the said witnesses. The Opposer requests that upon entry of an order by the Board, reinitiating this proceeding, that the Opposer be given a reasonable time period in which to depose the said witnesses.

WHEREFORE, the Opposer prays that the Board order the Applicant to produce the following witnesses of Paramount Parks, Inc., Al Weber, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer; and P. Michael Koontz, Chief Financial Officer.
