

its response period to Opposer's Notice of Opposition from June 9, 2002 to July 9, 2002. The Board has not ruled on Applicant's Third Motion.

As stated in Applicant's Third Motion, Applicant and the Opposer are actively negotiating a settlement agreement which may fully resolve the present opposition proceeding. Applicant thus requires more time to pursue these settlement negotiations. Therefore, Applicant believes that its response period to answer Opposer's Notice of Opposition should be further extended for a period of one month, i.e., from July 9, 2002, the closing date requested in Applicant's Third Motion, to August 9, 2002.

On June 18, 2002, Opposer's attorney, Ms. Roberta Jacobs-Meadway, consented to the request of Applicant's attorney, Lance Y. Liu, for a one-month extension of Applicant's response period.

Therefore, Applicant requests that its response period to answer Opposer's Notice of Opposition be extended for a period of one month.

Respectfully submitted,
