Bankruptcy statute. The undersigned attorney of record has not been retained by the new owner of the present application, believed to be L3 Optics, Inc. The undersigned attorney of record has also been advised by Nanovation's bankruptcy trustee that further prosecution of the trademark application is not authorized. The undersigned attorney has further been advised by Howard Gitten of Edwards & Angell, LLP, that he has been retained by L3 Optics, Inc. and is going to prepare and file appropriate documents to substitute his firm as counsel and to revoke any previous powers of attorney. Consequently, the undersigned attorney of record is no longer authorized to prosecute the underlying trademark application before the United States Trademark Office and respectfully requests withdrawal as attorney of record from that application.

All papers and property in the attorney's file concerning this opposition proceeding have been delivered to Applicant's attorney.

In view of the above, the undersigned requests that this Request to Withdraw be considered to allow the undersigned to withdraw as attorney of record.

Respectfully submitted,
