REQUEST ON CONSENT FOR FURTHER
SUSPENSION OF PROCEEDINGS

The parties request that proceedings herein be further suspended for ninety days, to August 11, 2004, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time.

Counsel for the parties have continued to actively discuss a settlement that would resolve this opposition proceeding and a companion opposition (No. 91151711). Though settlement has not been concluded, counsel request the opportunity to conclude their discussions. The undersigned counsel for opposer has been obtaining facts and documents to support a position paper, with exhibits, which will be sent this month to Applicant's counsel to expedite settlement. If settlement is not concluded the parties will go forward with their discovery.

This Request has been consented to by Applicant's counsel, N. Elton Dry, Esq., Dry & Tassin, L.L.P., and is not being filed for the purpose of delay.
