AND

On August 20, 2002, the Board reissued its notice instituting this proceeding together with a copy of the notice of opposition to applicant's last known address, these papers have been returned by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable. If an applicant in an opposition is not represented by an attorney or other authorized representative, and the applicant's copies of the notice of opposition and notification letter are returned to the Board as undeliverable, as here, the Board will make all reasonable efforts to locate the applicant. However, it is the responsibility of an applicant representing itself to keep the Office informed of its current address. If the applicant fails to do so, and the Board is unable to locate the applicant the Board will continue to send correspondence relating to the opposition to applicant's last-known address, and when applicant fails to file an answer to the notice of opposition, the opposition may be decided as in case of default.

Answer was due in this case (as last reset) on September 29, 2002. Inasmuch as it appears that no answer has been filed, nor has respondent filed a motion to extend its time to answer, notice of default is hereby entered against respondent under Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a).

Respondent is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why judgment by default should not be entered against respondent in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b).
