2. On August 13, 2002, Opposer filed its notice of opposition in Opposition No. 91153269.

3. On December 19, 2002, Opposer filed a motion to consolidate the above-captioned opposition proceedings under the style and case number of Opposition No. 91152288 and moved that the discovery period for the consolidated cases be reset for the discovery and testimony period established for Opposition No. 91153269.

4. For the past two months, Applicant has been in the process of changing counsel.

5. On January 8, 2003, Applicant's new counsel filed a Substitution of Counsel, Entry of Appearance and Request for Correspondence in each of the above-captioned opposition proceedings.

6. Applicant's new counsel desires additional time to investigate the facts, research the law, and review and analyze the files in these opposition proceedings.

7. Because of time that was lost while Applicant was seeking new counsel, and in order to allow Applicant's new counsel adequate time to become familiar with the facts and the law, the parties hereto stipulate to 150-day extensions for the closing date for discovery and the testimony periods in the above-captioned opposition proceedings.

8. The parties jointly pray that the Board enter an order rescheduling the closing date for discovery and rescheduling the testimony periods in both the above-captioned opposition proceedings as follows:

Discovery Period to Close	October 15, 2003
30-Day Testimony Period for Party in Position of Plaintiff to Close	January 13, 2004

30-Day Testimony Period for Party in Position of Defendant to Close

March 13, 2004

15-Day Rebuttal Testimony Period
for Plaintiff to Close

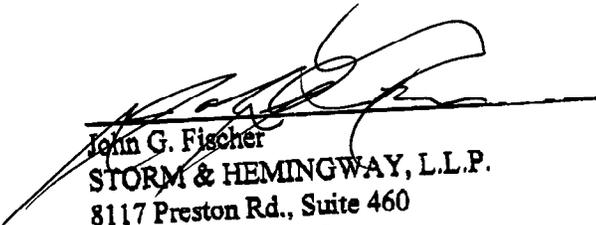

April 27, 2004

DATED this January 23, 2003.
