STIPULATION REGARDING SUSPENSION OF PROCEEDINGS

It is hereby stipulated by and between the parties, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board consenting thereto, that the above-referenced opposition proceeding be suspended in order to allow the parties time to explore settlement. Because settlement appears to be a strong possibility, suspension of the proceedings is appropriate so that the parties can focus on finalizing an agreement.

Counsel for Opposer contacted counsel for Applicant to discuss this suspension. Counsel for Applicant readily agreed to the suspension and further indicated that his concurrence to the suspension could be specified in this stipulation without the need for his corresponding signature.
