CCI/Area Description/Activities

The French-American Chamber of Commerce, is an independent, non-profit, bi-national organization dedicated to fostering and maintaining good economic, commercial, and financial relationships between France and the United States. The FACC acts as an important liaison between the French and American business communities by offering its members various services: -The FACC provides up-to-date information on the French and Cincinnati economies and the global business environment to facilitate the transfer of technologies and business opportunities between both countries. -The FACC assists in establishing business contacts through its vast referral services. The FACC, through the International Chamber Development Program (ICDP), provides training visas and work authorizations (J-1 visas) to further assist employers and job seekers. -The FACC helps promote and connect businesses and individuals through its scheduled panel discussions, industry-specific seminars, keynote speaker presentations at various events, formal or informals. -The FACC strives to facilitate French-American business relations within our region and with France. We organize trade missions to France to receive French businesses who come to Cincinnati.
