Re: KAM YUEN v. Marnie Greenberg
Opposition No.: 91156690
Serial No.: 76313593

Dear Sir/Madam:

McKenna Long & Aldridge LLP, is currently the counsel of record for the defendant, Marnie Greenberg, in the above-referenced opposition action. We seek leave to withdraw as counsel in this action, and on behalf of the firm, I formally request that the Commissioner allow MLA to withdraw.

The basis for our request is two-fold. First, despite our repeated efforts, we have had no contact with Ms. Greenberg for several months. She has not responded to numerous telephone messages, e-mails, and written correspondence we have sent to her regarding this matter. Second, Ms. Greenberg has not paid us for past services performed and expenses incurred for her, both in this matter and in other pending litigations, despite having received periodic invoices from us itemizing these legal services and costs. The amount owed to us has accumulated over a period of months and is substantial.

Last week, we informed Ms. Greenberg of our intention to withdraw and again provided information regarding the deadlines in this matter. We are in the process of transferring all of the relevant files and other documentation regarding this matter to her or, if she directs, to new counsel.

Please send confirmation of the Commissioner's approval allowing MLA to withdraw as counsel in this action to the undersigned at the following address:
