OPPOSERS' RESPONSE TO APPLICANT'S
MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

06-21-2004

U.S. Patent & TMOfr/TM Mail Ropt Dt. #22

Opposers respond to Applicant's Motion for Reconsideration as follows.

Applicant's statement appearing on Page 2, Par. 1 of its Motion, that Opposers' counsel represented that "production of non-confidential materials requires the execution of a protective order as a precondition to any production, including non-confidential materials" is untrue.

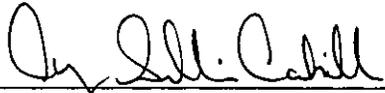

Applicant's Exhibit 1, Opposers' counsel's letter of May 20 2004, does not support the statement of Applicant's counsel. In fact, Opposers have produced over 4000 non-confidential documents in this proceeding to date.

The remainder of Applicant's motion does not present arguments of law or of fact that require a response.

Accordingly, Opposers request that Applicant's Motion for Reconsideration be denied.

Respectfully submitted,

TOYOTA JIDOSHA KABUSHIKI
KAISHA t/a TOYOTA MOTOR
CORPORATION, and TOYOTA MOTOR
SALES, U.S.A., INC.,
