Opposition No. 91158951

Precision Trading Corp.

v.

BSH Home Appliances
Corporation

Karl Kochersperger, Paralegal

Applicant and counterclaim opposer, BSH Home Appliances Corporation filed a consented request to suspend on July 31, 2007. Upon review of applicant's request, the Board notes deficiencies. It is noted that applicant failed to include the counterclaim dates in its request. Applicant is reminded that if the parties stipulate to any extension of trial and counterclaim dates, the filing should set forth the dates in the format shown in this order. See Trademark Rule 2.121(d). Future extension requests may not be considered if they are not in compliance with the rule. It is noted that this is the Board's second reminder to applicant to include counterclaim dates in an extension request. However, since both parties are desirous of suspension, the motion to suspend is granted.¹

¹ The Board notes that there have been numerous extensions/suspensions granted in this proceeding to date. The parties are advised that to continue to seek further extensions after this period expires, the parties will be expected to make a showing of good cause for any further extensions. This is true even when both parties stipulate to the request.

Resumption date and the close of discovery and testimony dates are set as indicated below. In each instance, a copy of the transcript of testimony, together with copies of documentary exhibits, must be served on the adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of testimony. Trademark Rule 2.125.
