Sir:

REQUEST TO AMEND IDENTIFICATION OF GOODS IN U.S. TRADEMARK APPLICATION NO. 76/460,477

Applicant, Solvay Engineered Polymers, respectfully requests that the identification of goods in U.S. Trademark Application No. 76/460,477 be amended to read as follows, provided that the requested Amendment as written is acceptable:

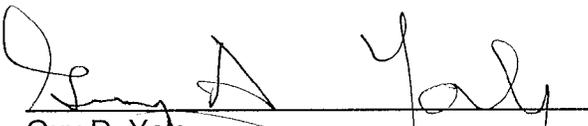

--Unprocessed artificial resins and unprocessed plastics in bead form for use in further manufacturing, specifically not for marketing or sale to building contractors, home improvement retailers, home improvement wholesalers and home improvement retail consumers, in International Class 1--.

Applicant and Opposer, Isola A/S, respectfully request that, if the above-identified Amendment, or any portion thereof, is indefinite or unacceptable for any reason, the Amendment should not be entered. In this case, Applicant will file a subsequent Amendment to identify the goods in an acceptable form.

The Withdrawal of Opposition No. 91159164 with Prejudice, which is filed with this Request, should be entered when Applicant's Amendment (or any subsequent Amendment, if required) is accepted and/or entered in the records of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

Respectfully Submitted,

Solvay Engineered Polymers
