v.

AIRFRAME BUSINESS SOFTWARE,
INC.

Cheryl Goodman, Interlocutory Attorney:

This case now comes up on opposer's/counterclaim defendant's motion, filed February 11, 2005, to suspend proceedings for purposes of the parties' settlement negotiations and to grant applicant thirty days in which to brief the motion for summary judgment, should the settlement negotiations not be successful.¹ Opposer's motion is granted.

In view of the parties' settlement negotiations, proceedings herein are suspended for SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this order subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time. During the suspension period, the parties shall notify the Board of any change of address for either the parties or their counsel.

¹ Accompanying opposer's motion is a letter from applicant referencing the parties' settlement negotiations, dated February 5, 2005.

Unless the parties sooner request resumption, upon conclusion of the suspension period and without further notice from the Board applicant is allowed until THIRTY DAYS thereafter in which to file its response to opposer's motion for summary judgment.

6-month suspension period for settlement ends: October 7, 2005

Applicant's response to opposer's Motion for summary judgment due November 6, 2005

After conclusion of the suspension period for settlement, proceedings remain otherwise suspended pending the determination of the pending motion for summary judgment.
