

agreement will have to be sent to counsel for The Board of Trustees of the University of Alabama for discussion with Applicant. Thereafter, the parties may negotiate the provisions of an agreement.

In a telephone conference on August 25, 2005, counsel for Opposer and counsel for Applicant agreed to move for a further six month suspension of proceedings in this case to permit the parties to continue negotiating for an agreement that would settle the opposition.

Applicant and Opposer request that his motion be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

The Board of Trustees of the University of Alabama
