MOTION WITH CONSENT FOR EXTENSION

In accordance with Rule 2.117 (c) of the Trademark Rules of Practice, opposer, 7-Eleven, Inc., with the consent of applicants, Antoinette K. Krause and Paul J. Krause, respectfully requests a thirty (30) day extension of time to file its response to applicant's motion for summary judgment on the grounds that the parties have reached a settlement and are in the process of arranging for execution of the settlement documents. 7-Eleven, Inc. has forwarded executed originals of the settlement documents to counsel for the Krauses for execution. This request, therefore, is not made for the purposes of delay, but rather to enable the parties to execute settlement. It is respectfully submitted that the parties' grounds for the request for suspension constitute good cause. In a telephone conference on October 2, 2006, between counsel for opposer, Diane G. Elder, and counsel for applicants, Michael Cronen, the parties agreed to request for extension.

Respectfully submitted,
Foley & Lardner, LLP
