The T.M.E.P. § 1604.07 Ownership, and Who May File an Affidavit advises that the United States Patent and Trademark Office need to be kept apprised of name changes.

The attached document shows that the USPTO, still has an incorrect filing of the name and address.

The Opposer's Affidavit of Roger Rojas, should be disallowed as the copy received by the Applicant Does not bare the signature or the Official Seal of the notary, proving it was signed in the notary's presence.

CONCLUSION

The Applicant stands by the original motion as the Applicant argued it with the facts and information at hand. The Applicant prays the Board will see through the smoke and mirrors of the Opposer and its Counsel and grant its motion.
