v.

Thude, John F. Jr.

David Mermelstein, Attorney:

Answer was due in this case on January 3, 2005. Inasmuch as it appears that no answer has been filed,¹ nor has applicant filed a motion to extend its time to answer, notice of default is hereby entered against applicant under Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a).

Applicant is allowed until THIRTY DAYS from the mailing date of this order to show cause why judgment by default

¹ The Board notes that applicant's copy of the institution order and the notice of opposition which was sent to applicant by the Board on November 24, 2004, was returned to the Board by the Postal Service as undeliverable. The returned envelope provided a new address for the applicant, but noted that the forwarding address had expired.

As a courtesy, a copy of this order only will be forwarded to the address on the previously-returned envelope. However, the Board will not maintain dual correspondence. Applicant's address of record will remain unchanged until applicant submits a request in writing for the Board to mail correspondence to a different address. Future orders will only be mailed to the address of record. (A change of correspondence address may be submitted electronically via ESTTA, the Board's electronic filing facility. See <http://estta.uspto.gov>.)

Opposition No. 91163117
