Opposition No. 91163399

MAG INSTRUMENT, INC.

v.

TUBELITE INC.

Amy Matelski, Paralegal Specialist

Applicant's consented motion to extend the time to file its answer filed February 21, 2005 is noted.

Because the parties are negotiating for a possible settlement of this case, proceedings herein are suspended until six months from the mailing date of this action, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time. See Trademark Rule 2.117(c).

In the event that there is no word from either party concerning the progress of their negotiations, upon conclusion of the suspension period, proceedings shall resume without further notice or order from the Board, upon the schedule set out below.

Applicant is allowed THIRTY DAYS from resumption in which to answer the notice of opposition. The parties are allowed the same THIRTY DAYS in which to serve responses to any outstanding discovery requests. Trial dates, including the close of discovery, are reset as follows:

Proceedings resume:	August 23, 2005
Discovery period to close:	November 21, 2005
Thirty-day testimony period for party in position of plaintiff to close:	February 19, 2006
Thirty-day testimony period for party in position of defendant to close:	April 20, 2006
Fifteen-day rebuttal testimony period to close:	June 4, 2006

In each instance, a copy of the transcript of testimony together with copies of documentary exhibits, must be served on the adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of testimony. Trademark Rule 2.125.

Briefs shall be filed in accordance with Trademark Rule 2.128(a) and (b). An oral hearing will be set only upon request filed as provided by Trademark Rule 2.129.

If, during the suspension period, either of the parties or their attorneys should have a change of address, the Board should be so informed.
