REQUEST TO AMEND IDENTIFICATION OF GOODS

The current status of the above referenced matter is that a Suspension of Opposition has been granted until November 26, 2005. There is one party that has opposed the filing and has thus filed the opposition; Channel, Inc., and there is one potential party-opposer; Cartier International B.V.

Applicant was engaged in discussion with each party-opposer in an attempt to resolve any potential perceived conflicts and avoid formal opposition. To this end, Applicant respectfully requests that the following amendment to the identification of goods and services in Class 025 be amended as follows:

“Clothing for motorcross, skateboarding and extreme-game events and riders, namely hats, beanies, shirts, windbreakers, sweatshirts, hoodies, and motorcross jerseys and pants, none of which are in the mainstream, none of which are in the malls none of which are franchised or part of a chain or conglomerate.” [underlining highlights the proposed amendment]

Respectfully submitted,
