CHANEL, INC.

v.

BOWMAN, DIAZ, & MOKRY,
GENERAL PARTNERSH IP

Jyll S. Taylor, Attorney:

On November 2, 2005, applicant filed a proposed amendment to the identification of goods and services in its application Serial No. 78294350. By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to change the identification of goods in Class 025 from "Clothing, namely, headwear, footwear, belts, underwear, bathing suits, tank tops, shirts, jackets, sweaters, sweatshirts, wristbands, sweat pants, pants, motocross pants, shorts, jerseys, motocross socks, motocross gloves, hats, sun visors, caps, motocross boots, shoes, insoles, sandals, and slippers " to "Clothing for motorcross, skateboarding and extreme-game events and riders, namely hats, beanies, shirts, windbreakers, sweatshirts, hoodies and motorcross jerseys and pants, none of which are in the mainstream, none of which are in the malls none of which are franchised or part of a chain or conglomerate."

Trademark Rule 2.133(a) provides, in pertinent part, that an application which is the subject of an inter partes proceeding may not be amended in substance except with the consent of the adverse party and the approval of the Board, or upon motion. However, the proposed amendment must also comply with all other rules and statutory provisions.

The parties are informed the proposed amendment is limiting in nature and in compliance with all other applicable rules and regulations, and if agreed to by opposer, it could be approved and entered.

Opposer herein is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order in which to advise the Board whether it consents to said proposed amendment.

Proceedings herein are otherwise suspended.
