The Heisman Trophy Trust

v.

Heisman Winners Association,
LLC

Andrew P. Baxley, Interlocutory Attorney:

Proceedings herein are suspended pending disposition of applicant's motion to compel and motion to test the sufficiency of applicant's responses to requests for admission, except as discussed below.¹ The parties should not file any paper which is not germane to these motions. See Trademark Rules 2.120(e)(2) and 2.120(h)(2).

This suspension order does not toll the time for either party to respond to discovery requests which had been duly served prior to the filing of these motions, nor does it toll the time for a party to appear for a discovery deposition which had been duly noticed prior to the filing of these motions. See id.

¹ The Board notes that, as part of its prayers for relief in its motions discussed hereinabove, applicant asks that the Board order opposer to pay a specified sum to applicant for expenses incurred in connection with those motions. However, the Board will not award expenses to any party. See Trademark Rule 2.127(f).

Applicant's motions will be decided in due course.
