Opposition No. 91167100

Cabela's Inc.

v.

International Outsourcing
Services, LLC

Peter Cataldo, Administrative Trademark Judge:

Answer was due on September 29, 2006. A review of the record shows that an answer has not been filed.

This case now comes up for consideration of opposer's motion, filed November 29, 2006, for default judgment against applicant for failure to file an answer. The motion is uncontested.<sup>1</sup>

Inasmuch as applicant failed to file an answer in this case, and failed to respond to opposer's motion in any manner, the motion for default judgment is granted. See <sup>1</sup> If a defendant fails to file an answer to a complaint during the time allowed therefor, the Board, on its own initiative, may issue a notice of default allowing the defendant time to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against it. The issue of whether default judgment should be entered against a defendant for failure to file an answer may also be raised by means of a motion filed by the party in the position of plaintiff. In such cases, the motion may serve as a substitute for the Board's issuance of a notice of default.

Trademark Rule 2.127(a). Accordingly, judgment is hereby entered against applicant, the notice of opposition is sustained, and registration to applicant is refused.<sup>2</sup> See Fed. R. Civ. P. 55 and Trademark Rule 2.127(a).

<sup>2</sup> In view thereof, opposer's concurrently filed motion to compel is moot and will be given no consideration.
