Opposer respectfully submits that good cause exists for the extension requested herein because Opposer's counsel had difficulty communicating with Opposer regarding discovery in this opposition and thus did not serve its initial discovery until April 28, 2006. The requested extension will permit the parties to complete necessary discovery in a thorough manner and present a more complete record to the Board for adjudication of the issues germane to this opposition. In addition, Opposer submits that this is the first request for an extension of the discovery and trial schedule in this case.

This extension was discussed with and agreed to by Barry Neil Schrum, Esq., counsel for Applicant, during a telephone discussion with one of the undersigned counsel for Opposer, on May 22, 2006.

For all of the foregoing reasons, Opposer respectfully requests that the Board grant this motion and extend the close of discovery through August 21, 2006, with the testimony and trial dates to run thereafter as set forth above.

Respectfully submitted,

TOYOTA JIDOSHA KABUSHIKI
KAISHA, T/A TOYOTA MOTOR
CORPORATION
